The Iron Gates:

The Iron Gates in Prehistory Clive Bonsall, Vasile Boroneanț, Ivana Radovanović, 2008 This book had its origins in a symposium held at the University of Edinburgh from 30 March to 2 April 2000 which was attended by archaeologists with a shared interest in the prehistory of the small but distinctive region of Southeast Europe known as the Iron Gates. In the broad sense the area refers to the section of the Danube valley where the river forms the modern political border between Serbia and Romania and this definition is adopted for the present volume. First and foremost the volume is intended to illustrate the immense research potential of the Iron Gates region. A second objective is to provide case studies that illustrate the nature of current research and the rich possibilities offered by the growing range of scientific techniques available to archaeologists and their application to existing archaeological collections.
