Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Liberative Sight of Christ Luke Foster, 2024-06-28 How can we speak of God as Father in a world that is inhumane? While many engagements with Gustavo Gutiérrez's theology centre on such themes as the option for the poor, the role of praxis or the Kingdom of God in Gustavo Gutiérrez and the Liberative Sight of Christ, Luke Foster explores the underlying theological convictions and commitments within which these concepts cohere. By developing an analysis that is attentive to the unity and coherence of Gustavo Gutiérrez's thought, Foster resources a critique that is distinctive not only in its pertinence but also in the possibilities that it opens for the development of his project in the future. Innovatively offering a systemic account of Gustavo Gutiérrez's theology, this book offers both an indispensable overview for those who are engaging with Gustavo Gutiérrez for the first time and a distinctive analysis for those who are seeking to deepen their understanding of his work.

Not to Kill a Muslim Joshua Graves, 2015-04-13 The adherents of Islam and Christianity comprise half of the world's population or 3.5 billion people. Tension between them exists throughout the world and is increasing here in North America. In How Not to Kill a Muslim, Dr. Joshua Graves provides a practical, subversive theological framework for a strategic posture of peaceful engagement between Christians and Muslims. Based upon both academic and personal experience, Josh grew up in Metro Detroit; this book will provide progressive Christians with a clear understanding of Jesus' radical message of
