The Most Ancient of Minorities

Stanislao Pugliese,2002-03-30 A volume of essays that examine more than 2 000 years of Italian Jewish history from ancient Rome to contemporary developments concerning assimilation literature and the recent trial of a former SS captain implicated in crimes against humanity The essays make clear that the Italian Jews have a unique history in Europe A Jewish colony existed in Rome 200 years before the birth of Christ the Eternal City therefore represents the oldest Jewish community in the Western world Successive waves of immigrants created dozens of Jewish communities on the peninsula Depending on the time and the place Italian Jews could expect tolerance discrimination persecution or outright violence Still they fared better than their brethren in other parts of Europe Because of their long history on the peninsula the volume covers an astonishing variety of subjects from legal discrimination and historical sources to Jewish dancing masters in the Renaissance from architecture to contradictory interpretations of the Holocaust from the special section on the linguistic and moral power of Primo Levi to child rearing manuals of 17th century Livorno In addition two Holocaust survivors recount their experiences in an extraordinary section The Language of the Witness Engaging essays for scholars students and other researchers interested in Italian Studies and the roles the peninsula s Jewish population played through history

Byzantines and Crusaders in Non-Greek Sources, 1025-1204 Mary Whitby,2007-11 These essays survey the range of historical sources from the peoples who collided with the Byzantine Empire during this period of dramatic upheaval The Empire that had been expanded and consolidated by Basil II d 1025 was to disintegrate in the face of incursions from the north and Muslim east In addition pilgrims and crusaders from the west passed through the Empire and settled culminating in the capture of Constantinople by the Fourth Crusade in 1204 In order to understand the history of the region during this period one must be aware of the rich source material created by these shifting populations in a wide range of languages and with differing traditions of historical writing The fourteen essays give an overview of the material highlighting any problems the historian may have in dealing with it and provide detailed bibliographical surveys Latin Arabic Jewish Slavonic Georgian Armenian and Syriac sources are all discussed This invaluable reference work offers new approaches for all those working on the meeting of the Christian and Muslim worlds in this period
