

TO celebrate the christening of his baby daughter, the King of the Happy Kingdom held a banquet to which he invited all the important people and the fairies. But he didn't invite the wicked fairy because she had not been heard of for so long that everyone had forgotten her. But, just as each of the fairies was going up to the princess and bestowing on her some magical gift, the wicked fairy arrived. "I have a gift for the princess," she said. "I decree that if she ever pricks her finger on a spindle she will die." Fortunately, one of the good fairies still had a gift. "I will alter that spell," she said. "If the princess pricks her finger she will not die but fall into a deep sleep from which she can only be awakened by the first kiss of true love!"
