Some Differences In The Political Social:

Social Selves and Political Reforms C. Melissa Snarr,2007-09-20 Christian ethicists from a wide spectrum of methods and commitments come together in arguing for some kind of social conception of the self noticing that convergence sheds new light on the current range of theoretical options in Christian ethics But it also opens up an important conversation about political reform Social visions of the self help ethicists comprehend and evaluate the moral work of institutions comprehension that is especially important in a time of crisis for democratic participation But not all visions of the social self are equal Snarr's book explores and evaluates five different visions of the social self from five key ethicists Rauschenbusch Niebuhr Hauerwas Harrison and Townes It identifies insights and risks associated with each vision of the self and considers the adequacy of each vision for reforms that deepen democracy The book concludes with a proposal for six core convictions about the social self that help form Christian political ethics able to respond to contemporary needs for democratic reform

Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival William T. Armaline,Davita Silfen Glasberg,2024-09-30 Asserting a critical sociological perspective Human Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival reveals the contested historical processes through which fundamental human needs are constructed as rights under international law and how those rights are confronted by the ruling relations and crises inherent to contemporary global capitalism and the waning American hegemonic world order Put simply the book explores why human rights as a formal legal project has failed to deliver on guaranteeing human survival let alone universal human dignity Rather than stopping at critique the authors propose a specific materialist intellectual and political agenda for the preservation of collective human survival that can achieve the historically unique notions of common humanity and human emancipation The authors build on previous work further developing the sociology of human rights as a distinct field at the intersection of Social Sciences and International Law They take on several provocative theoretical debates such as those over connections between racism and capitalism the existence of a global or transnational police state the control growth and exploitation of migrants migration and the complex relationship between political repression and various forms of domination Human Rights Praxis and the Struggle for Survival offers critical analysis of contemporary politics and options for students scholars organizers and stakeholders to grapple with some of the most pressing social problems of human history Barron's AP U.S. Government and Politics with Online Tests Curt Lader,2018-07-01 Always study with the most up to date prep Look for AP U.S. Government and Politics Premium ISBN 978 1 5062 5869 0 on sale December 31 2019 Publisher's Note Products purchased from third party sellers are not guaranteed by the publisher for quality authenticity or access to any online entitles included with the product

Communism, Capitalism and the Mass Media Colin Sparks,Anna Reading,1997-12-08 Colin Sparks provides a challenging reassessment of the impact of the collapse of communism on the media systems of Eastern Europe He analyzes both the changes themselves and their implications for the ways in which we think about the mass media while also demonstrating that most of the orthodox accounts of the end of communism are seriously flawed There are much greater continuities between the old system and the new than are captured by the theories that argue that there has been a radical and fundamental change Instead of marking the end of critical inquiry or the end of history as some have suggested Sparks argues that the collapse of the communist systems demonstrates how very limited and frequently incorrect the main ways of discussing the mass media are He concludes with a provocative discussion of the ways in which we need to modify our thinking in the light of these developments Social Change and Politics in Punjab, 1898-1910 Shyamala Bhatia,1987
