Somewhere Between Mexico And A River Called Home:

Somewhere Between Mexico and a River Called Home Marian Haddad, 2001 Inclined to Speak Hayan Charara, 2008-03 At no other time in American history has our imagination been so engrossed with the Arab experience An indispensable and historic volume Inclined to Speak gathers together poems from the most important contemporary Arab American poets that shape and alter our understanding of this experience These poems also challenge us to reconsider what it means to be American Impressive in its scope this book provides readers with an astonishing array of poetic sensibilities touching on every aspect of the human condition Whether about culture politics loss art or language itself the poems here engage these themes with originality dignity and an unyielding need not only to speak but also to be heard Here are thirty nine poets offering up 160 poems Included in the anthology are Naomi Shihab Nye Samuel Hazo D H Melhem Lawrence Joseph Khaled Mattawa Mohja Khaf Matthew Shenoda Kazim Ali Nuar Alsadir Fady Joudah and Lisa Suhair Majaj Charara has written a lengthy introduction about the state of Arab American poetry in the country today and short biographies of the poets and provided an extensive list of further readings 2012 Poet's Market Robert Lee Brewer, 2011-08-20 The Most Trusted Guide for Getting Poetry Published The 2012 Poet's Market includes hundreds of publishing opportunities specifically for poets including poetry publications book chapbook publishers contests and more These listings include contact information submission preferences insider tips on what specific editors want and when offered payment information Plus the editorial content in the front of the book has been revamped to include more articles on the Business of Poetry Promotion of Poetry Craft of Poetry and Interviews with Poets Learn how to navigate the social media landscape write various poetic forms offer writing workshops and more You also gain access to Lists of conferences workshops organizations and grants One year access to the poetry related information and listings on WritersMarket.com A free digital download of Writer's Yearbook featuring the 100 Best Markets WritersDigest.com upload images WritersDigest Yearbook 11 pdf Includes an exclusive 60 minute FREE WEBINAR with editor and poet Robert Lee Brewer that will teach you how to build an audience for your poetry Ridiculously relevant I've been using Poet's Market since I was in college more than 20 years ago Since then I've published hundreds of poems and two books Aaron Belz author of Lovely Raspberry I returned to writing in 2006 and Poet's Market was the first book I purchased It guides everyone from newbie to seasoned writer on the path to publishing their poems Jessie Carty author of Paper House Modern Arab American Fiction Steven Salaita, 2011-04-13 Within the spectrum of American literary traditions Arab American literature is relatively new Writing produced by Americans of Arab origin is mainly a product of the twentieth century and only started to flourish in the past thirty years While this young but thriving literature varies widely in content and style it emerges from a common community and within a specific historical political and cultural context In Modern Arab American Fiction Salaita maps out the landscape of this genre as he details rather than defines the last century of Arab American fiction Exploring the works of such best selling authors as Rabih Alameddine Mohja

Kahf Laila Halaby Diana Abu Jaber Alicia Erian and Randa Jarrar Salaita highlights the development of each author's writing and how each has influenced Arab American fiction. He examines common themes including the Israel Palestine conflict the Lebanese Civil War of 1975-90 the representation and practice of Islam in the United States social issues such as gender and national identity in Arab cultures and the various identities that come with being Arab American. Combining the accessibility of a primer with in-depth critical analysis Modern Arab American Fiction is suitable for a broad audience: those unfamiliar with the subject area as well as scholars of the literature.

Al-Mutanabbi Street Starts Here Beau Beausoleil, Deema Shehabi, 2012-08-20

On March 5th 2007 a car bomb was exploded on al Mutanabbi Street in Baghdad. More than thirty people were killed and more than one hundred were wounded. This locale is the historic center of Baghdad: bookselling, a winding street filled with bookstores and outdoor book stalls. Named after the famed 10th century classical Arab poet al Mutanabbi, it has been the heart and soul of the Baghdad literary and intellectual community. This anthology begins with a historical introduction to al Mutanabbi Street and includes the writing of Iraqis as well as a wide swath of international poets and writers who were outraged by this attack. This book seeks to show where al Mutanabbi Street starts in all of us personally in our communities and in our nations. It seeks to show the commonality between this small street in Baghdad and our own cultural centers and why this attack was an attack on us all. This anthology sees al Mutanabbi Street as a place for the free exchange of ideas, a place that has long offered its sanctuary to the complete spectrum of Iraqi voices. This is where the roots of democracy in the best sense of that word took hold many hundreds of years ago. This anthology looks toward al Mutanabbi Street as an affirmation of all that we hope for in a more just society.
