Something Wicked 560 Horror Classics Macabre Tales Supernatural Mysteries is an unparalleled anthology that plunges readers into the depths of fear and fascination through an array of foreboding narratives and supernatural encounters. This collection fuses diverse literary styles ranging from gothic horror to chilling mysteries crafted by some of the greatest literary minds across centuries. The anthology offers an expansive exploration of horror's evolution vividly representing its thematic intricacies and cultural reflections. Standout stories weave dark allegories with eerie settings promising to both unsettle and entice readers by challenging the boundaries between reality and the surreal. This collection brings together an illustrious array of authors who have collectively shaped the landscape of horror and the macabre. Among these visionaries are Wilhelm Hauff, Charles Dickens, Mark Twain, and Mary Shelley, each contributing to a fabric of narratives that span Romantic, Victorian, and early 20th-century sensibilities. The anthology aligns with movements such as Romanticism and Gothic Revival while exploring the anxieties of modernity and the unknown. The contributing authors provide a spectrum of perspectives that enrich the thematic core with cultural and historical depth, combining to create an essential resource for understanding the genre's enduring appeal and evolution. Such an extensive compilation offers readers a unique opportunity to immerse themselves in a multitude of voices that collectively explore terror, mystery, and the supernatural. Something Wicked is recommended for those seeking a comprehensive understanding of horror's literary roots and its narrative diversity. Readers will find education and entertainment in the varied insights and dialogues produced by the integration of these classic works, making this anthology a vital addition to any literary collection.

Santa Teresa, some account of her life and times. Together with some pages from the history of the last great reform in the religious orders Gabriela Cunninghame-Graham, 1894 Reports from Commissioners Great Britain. Parliament. Outbreak! Hilary Evans, Robert E. Bartholomew, 2009. From fads, crazes, and manias to collective delusions, scares, panics, and mass hysterics, history is replete with examples of remarkable social behavior. Many are fueled by fear and uncertainty; others are driven by hope and expectation. For others still, the causes are more obscure. This massive collection of extraordinary social behaviors spans more than two millennia and attempts to place many of the episodes within their greater historical and cultural context. Perhaps the most well-known example of unusual collective behavior occurred in 1938 when a million or more Americans were frightened or panicked after listening to a realistic radio drama about a Martian invasion of New Jersey based on an adaptation of the H. G. Wells novel War of the Worlds. Less known but equally remarkable scares based on Wells' book occurred in Chile in 1944, when Army units were mobilized in Ecuador in 1949 when riots broke out leaving more than a dozen dead, as well as in Buffalo in 1968, Rhode Island in 1974, and Europe in 1988 and 1998. The modern civilized world is by no means immune to such peculiar episodes. In the late 20th century, scores of people in the U.S. and Europe were wrongly incarcerated following claims of Satanic ritual abuse by authorities. Untutored in False Memory Syndrome, this episode recalls the European witch terror of the late Middle Ages when innocent people were tortured and executed for consorting with the Devil based on the flimsiest of evidence.

OUTBREAK: THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF EXTRAORDINARY SOCIAL BEHAVIOR is an authoritative reference on a broad range of topics: collective behavior, deviance, social and perceptual psychology, sociology, history, folklore, religious studies, political science, social anthropology, gender studies, critical thinking, and mental health. Never before have so many sources been brought together on the mesmerizing topic of collective behavior.
