

The image shows the exterior of a two-story building housing 'The Cook's Tale Restaurant'. The upper floor has three visible windows, each with a hanging basket of purple and pink flowers. A dark horizontal band runs across the front of the building, featuring the restaurant's name in white capital letters. Below this band, the ground floor has a central entrance and two large display windows. The left window is divided into four panes, with the bottom two showing a landscape scene and text. The right window is also divided into four panes, with the bottom two showing a still life with bottles and text. The building has a white facade with grey window frames and a grey base.
