Literature-Based Teaching in the Content Areas Carole Cox, 2011-01-12. Grounded in theory and best practices research this practical text provides teachers with 40 strategies for using fiction and non fiction trade books to teach in five key content areas language arts and reading, social studies, mathematics, science and the arts. Each strategy provides everything a teacher needs to get started a classroom example that models the strategy, a research based rationale, relevant content standards, suggested books, reader response questions and prompts, assessment ideas, examples of how to adapt the strategy for different grade levels K 2, 3, 5 and 6, 8 and ideas for differentiating instruction for English language learners and struggling students. Throughout the book student work samples and classroom vignettes bring the content to life.

Common Core Curriculum: English,

Grades K-5 Great Minds, 2014-05-06. Common Core's English resources empower educators to meet the expectations of the Common Core State Standards CCSS for English Language Arts ELA and build essential content knowledge for students in grades K-5. Each grade in The Wheatley Portfolio features a comprehensive, coherent sequence of thematic units that engage students in deep study of worthwhile texts and topics. Features of this book include Six thematic units for each grade, each centered on a curated collection of literary and informational texts. Focus standards for each unit that complement the topic and promote student mastery of essential literacy skills. Suggested texts and activities to incorporate science, art and history into English instruction. This revised second edition includes a sample text study that guides students through a close read of an exemplary text, updated web resources and refreshed suggested works. Educators who create their curriculum based on Common Core's Wheatley Portfolio guarantee that students are exposed to content rich instruction and have ample opportunity to master the reading, writing, speaking, listening and language skills articulated in the CCSS for ELA.

Resources in Education, 2000-10. Inequality, Power and School Success Gilberto Conchas, Michael

Gottfried, 2015-04-10. This volume highlights issues of power inequality and resistance for Asian, African American and Latino students in distinct U.S. and international contexts. Through a collection of case studies, it links universal issues relating to inequality in education such as Asian, Latino and African American males in the inner city neighborhoods, Latina teachers and single mothers in California, undocumented youth from Mexico and El Salvador, immigrant Moroccan youth in Spain and immigrant Afro Caribbean and Indian teenagers in New York and in London. The volume explores the processes that keep students thriving academically and socially and outlines the patterns that exist among individuals, students, teachers, parents to resist the hegemony of the dominant class and school failure With emphasis on racial formation theory this volume fundamentally argues that education despite inequality remains the best hope of achieving the American dream
