The Choosing:

Olawu P. J. Leigh, 2023-07-01 Set in a time and place unburdened by the devastation of colonialism Olawu is a refreshing tale about a brave girl with a bold dream Olawu is the eldest daughter of Kanakam's only physician Her strong will and compassionate nature are a constant source of conflict in her village In Kanakam there are many rules for girls and those who break them are often broken Despite Kanakam's restrictions against girls reading writing or working a trade her father teaches her in secret Inspired by his skill and shielded by his status Olawu learns eagerly at his side hoping to one day follow in his footsteps Olawu's world is upended when the Dikebe tribe takes over Kanakam The Dikebe tribe has conquered dozens of villages west of the river as they wage a violent war against the Oloko tribe to the east When tragedy strikes Olawu and her family are left vulnerable to the harsh realities of Kanakam including the forced marriage ritual known as the Choosing As the eldest daughter Olawu's duty is to protect her family But her father instilled in her a greater purpose and the Choosing is no better than slavery Driven to desperation she seeks help from Dikembe the son of the tribal warlord who has taken over her village She hopes he will repay her father's past kindness and shield her family but hope is a fragile thing and time is running out Told in three parts Olawu is an inspiring coming of age story an immersive introduction to 19th century East Africa and a Quarter Finalist for the 2023 BookLife Prize for Fiction

Prioritarianism Richard J. Arneson, 2022-06-02 Prioritarianism holds that improvements in someone's life gains in well being are morally more valuable the worse off the person would otherwise be The doctrine is impartial holding that a gain in one person's life counts exactly the same as an identical gain in the life of anyone equally well off If we have some duty of beneficence to make the world better prioritarianism specifies the content of the duty Unlike the utilitarian the prioritarian holds that we should not only seek to increase human well being but also distribute it fairly across persons by tilting in favor of the worse off A variant version adds that we should also give priority to the morally deserving to saints over scoundrels The view is a standard for right choice of individual actions and public policies offering a distinctive alternative to utilitarianism maximize total well being sufficiency make everyone's condition good enough and egalitarianism make everyone's condition the same
