Repka, 2011-08-01 This is a book about living even as one is dying It is a book about the choices we make choosing spiritual risk rather than security choosing surrender to a hunger for God rather than hanging on to life or fighting death It is a book on how the quality of one's relationships with God creation self and others can either help or hinder the dying process Living well does indeed contribute to dying well Dying with Grace a Conscious Commitment to the Dying Process is the story of Franks ability to let go of control enjoy his last days and move toward the unknown and unknowable Though alert in mind and spirit Franks body was as good as paralyzed Yet he remained curious about walking through the valley of death leaning into the process with dignity and grace Experiencing pain and suffering joy and love he lived life immersed in the rhythm of nature and died in that same rhythm To the very end he never lost consciousness Dying with Grace is written as a reflective text for family members who are caring for dying relatives for parish workers nurses and social workers assisting individuals and families during the dying process The book sheds light on what it means to die as one lives and invites the reader to contemplate just how the dying experience may be spiritually transformative for both family and friends as well as for the one who is passing The frightened the skeptical the devastated the hope filled faith believers and non believers alike can benefit from this book      Piece of Soul Through the Heart Loretta M. Reynolds, 2003 Offering spiritual insight through a series of letters Reynolds relates the experience of caring for his father who suffered from advanced Parkinson's disease      We Celebrate Our Mother and Father Joseph Patrick Meissner, Brian Gerard Meissner, Rose Elizabeth Meissner Vernon, Robert Charles Meissner, Anne Marie Meissner, 2018-08-30 Honor thy father and thy mother This is the fourth commandment from the ten God gave us through Moses in the Bible This fourth follows the initial three signifying our duties to the Supreme

Being After God our next obligation is to our parents This shows the importance of parents Notice the word is honor It does not say obey but honor certainly includes obedience Furthermore this commandment does not end when we each reach maturity The commandment of honor signifies we must respect our parents all their lives Our mother was Norah Attracta Cusack Our father was Joseph Charles Meissner By the usual social standards they were very ordinary people on this planet However they possessed their own wonderful beauty and intelligence They were most extraordinary parents who welcomed us to life took care of our needs ensured we received great educations and devoted their lives unselfishly to us for decades But they gave us much more than our mere bodies They gave us faith hope and love during their long lives They showed us how to live as God urges us to live They continuously nourished us spiritually from our mother s nightly demands to kneel in the living room praying the rosary to our Blessed Virgin to our father who drove us even in the blinding snow freezing cold and storms to church every week ensuring we arrived on time Here are words from my brother Robert for our parents As for our son Scott who suffering from severe PTSD ended his life I agree he is somewhere around and still present in the universe So are our mom and dad I think after we die we will learn how all this is done you know Mom and Dad are the greatest proof of God religion and an afterlife They were so good and worked tirelessly for our family If you asked them about religion the church and faith they might say it really doesn t matter except you treat your fellow human beings with dignity and acknowledge God as Father The rest of the argument really doesn t mean that much So to Mom and Dad we celebrate your lives and say an enormous thank you
