Textual Traffic Colonialism Modernity And The Economy Of The Text:

Virginia Woolf in Context Bryony Randall, Jane Goldman, 2012-12-17 As a paradigmatic modernist author Virginia Woolf is celebrated for the ways her fiction illuminates modern and contemporary life. Woolf scholars have long debated how context whether historical, cultural or theoretical is to be understood in relation to her work and how her work produces new insights into context. Drawing on an international field of leading and emergent specialists this collection provides an authoritative resource for contemporary Woolf scholarship that explores the distinct and overlapping dimensions of her writings. Rather than survey existing scholarship these essays extend Woolf studies in new directions by examining how the author is contextualised today. The collection also highlights connections between Woolf and key cultural, political and historical issues of the twentieth century such as avant-gardism in music and art, developments in journalism and the publishing industry, political struggles over race, gender and class and the bearings of colonialism, empire and war.

Encyclopedia of Postcolonial Studies John Charles Hawley, 2001-09-30 The collapse of empires has resulted in a remarkable flourishing of indigenous cultures in former colonies. The end of the colonial era has also witnessed a renaissance of creativity in the postcolonial world as modern writers embrace their heritage. The experience of postcoloniality has also drawn the attention of academics from various disciplines and has given rise to a growing body of scholarship. This reference work overviews the present state of postcolonial studies and offers a refreshingly polyphonic treatment of the effects of globalization on literary studies in the 21st century. The volume includes more than 150 alphabetically arranged entries on postcolonial studies around the world. Entries on individual authors provide brief biographical details but primarily examine the author's handling of postcolonial themes. So too entries on theoreticians offer background information and summarize the person's contributions to critical thought. Entries on national literatures explore the history of postcoloniality and the ways in which writers have broadly engaged their legacy while those on important topics discuss the theoretical origin and current ramifications of key concepts in postcolonial studies. Cross references and cited works for further reading are included while a comprehensive bibliography concludes the volume.

Indo-Australian Relations Phillip Darby, 2017-10-02 This book explores a range of connections between India and Australia that fall outside the formal diplomacy of the two states. It examines how race, class and gender shape conceptions of the two nations whose voices are heard and whose are not and the politics that emerge from sport, culture, the drive for development as well as from language and the poetic. The book seeks to challenge the primacy of the state in determining the character of the nation and its monopoly of relations with other peoples. To this end it looks to everyday life to find linkages not only between India and Australia but also extending through the South and Southeast Asian regions. This book was published as a special issue of Postcolonial Studies.

Richard Wright Kenneth Kinnaman, 2006-03-13 African American writer Richard Wright (1908-1960) was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son. By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics    Textual Traffic S. Shankar,2001-04-19 In Textual Traffic S Shankar clarifies notions of modernity and postmodernity by lucidly examining their relationship to colonialism In the process he challenges current emphases in cultural criticism through an exploration of what it means to regard the text as an economy and carries out a detailed scrutiny of travel narratives as a genre Paying particular attention to representations of Africa and India Shankar tracks the historical contours of a colonial modernity in a wide variety of travel narratives African American and postcolonial canonical and filmic drawn from different periods of the twentieth century Included are explorations of Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness Zora Neale Hurston s Mules and Men Richard Wright s Black Power V S Naipaul s India trilogy and Stephen Spielberg s Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom    Essay and General Literature Index Minnie Earl Sears,Marian Shaw,Dorothy Herbert West,2003 Includes List of books indexed published also separately    Asian Theatre Journal ,2001    Swift Studies ,2007    English Novel Explication Peter L. Abernethy,1976    The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Multiethnic American Literature: N - S Emmanuel Sampath Nelson,2005 Alphabetically arranged entries in five chronological volumes focus on individual authors works and topics related to multiethnic American literature
