Meyer,2003-05-21 Farms that were on poor soil and distant from markets declined whereas other farms successfully adjusted production as rural and urban markets expanded and as Midwestern agricultural products flowed eastward after 1840 Rural and urban demand for manufactures in the East supported diverse industrial development and prosperous rural areas and burgeoning cities supplied increasing amounts of capital for investment    Florentine Ariosto Jones: A Yankee in

Switzerland and the Early Globalization of the American System of Watchmaking Frank Jacob, 2021-09-07 This book recounts the story of Florentine Ariosto Jones who after the Civil War decided to manufacture watches Combining the cheap labor available at the time in Switzerland with US manufacturing technologies Jones embarked on his venture to produce affordable watches for the American market Consequently he became a pioneer in the business of outsourcing labor for economic purposes through his contracting of labor to Europe While the company still exists today very little is known about Jones The present book will undoubtedly change this by telling the fascinating story of an American adventurer and his pursuit to globalize American watchmaking at the end of the 19th Century
