Stolen Lives:

Death in Custody Roger A. Mitchell Jr., Jay D. Aronson, 2023-09-05 The United States significantly undercounts the number of people who die in law enforcement custody each year How can we fix this Deaths resulting from interactions with the US criminal legal system are a public health emergency but the scope of this issue is intentionally ignored by the very systems that are supposed to be tracking these fatalities We don't know how many people die in custody each year whether in an encounter with police on the street during transport or while in jails prisons or detention centers In order to make a real difference and address this human rights problem researchers and policy makers need reliable data In Death in Custody Roger A Mitchell Jr MD and Jay D Aronson PhD share the stories of individuals who died in custody and chronicle the efforts of activists and journalists to uncover the true scope of deaths in custody From Ida B Wells's enumeration of extrajudicial lynchings more than a century ago to the Washington Post's current effort to count police shootings the work of journalists and independent groups has always been more reliable than the state's official reports Through historical analysis Mitchell and Aronson demonstrate how government at all levels has intentionally avoided reporting death in custody data Mitchell and Aronson outline a practical achievable system for accurately recording and investigating these deaths They argue for a straightforward public health solution adding a simple checkbox to the US Standard Death Certificate that would create an objective way of recording whether a death occurred in custody They also propose the development of national standards for investigating deaths in custody and the creation of independent regional and federal custodial death review panels These tangible solutions would allow us to see the full scope of the problem and give us the chance to truly address it

Reclaiming Stolen Lives, 2008 Presents an accurate picture though profoundly disturbing of the current practice and scale of enforced disappearances in Asia AFAD offers key accounts from human rights experts of the historical development and present political state of personal testimonies of people fighting for truth and justice in its struggle to reclaim stolen lives This book is a critical reading that places enforced disappearances firmly in the forefront of the most urgent political issues of today Revisionary Narratives Naima Hachad, 2019 Revisionary Narratives examines the historical and formal evolutions of Moroccan women's auto biography in the last four decades particularly its conflation with testimony and its expansion beyond literary texts It analyzes auto biographical and testimonial acts in Arabic colloquial Moroccan Darija French and English in the fields of prison narratives visual arts theater performance and digital media situating them within specific sociopolitical and cultural contexts of production and consumption Part One begins by tracing the rise of a feminist consciousness in prison narratives produced and or published in the late 1970s through the 2000s Part Two moves to analyzing the ubiquity of auto biography and testimony in the arts as well as contemporary sociopolitical activism The focus throughout the various case studies is women's engagement with patriarchal and neo imperial norms and practices as they relate to their experiences of political violence activism migration and displacement To understand why and how women collapse the boundaries between autobiography biography testimony and sociopolitical commentary the book employs a broad transdisciplinary montage approach that combines theories on gender and autobiography and takes into account postcolonial postmodern transnational transglobal and translocal perspectives Doing so the book marks auto biography and testimony as a specific field of inquiry within the study of women s postcolonial cultural productions in the Moroccan and more broadly the Maghrebi and the Middle Eastern contexts STOLEN LIVES LOUISE.
