Mending the World Joseph Melnick, 2016-12-05 Mending the World provides a blueprint for making a difference in the intractable social issues that exist today. It presents the compelling drama of thirteen stories of people on the firing lines in countries in Africa Europe Scandinavia as well as Brazil Cambodia North of Ireland and the USA. The cases involve diverse real world issues such as AIDS reduction poverty political conflict natural disasters and dilemmas in supporting the aged. The stories are framed by the editors with theory and historical data and offer the hope of effective change using Gestalt principles and methods. In these complex issues you need unique skills to bring people together to work toward a common solution and to empower yourselves to influence people with positional power. Mending the World shows how use of these skills leads to high impact outcomes.

Taylor Stoehr's Here Now Next is the first scholarly account of the origins of Gestalt therapy told from the point of view of its chief theoretician by a man who knew him well. Stoehr describes both Goodman's role in establishing the principal ideas of the Gestalt movement and the ways in which his practice as a therapist changed him ultimately leading to a new vocation as the socio therapist of the body politic. He places Goodman in the midst of his world showing how his personal and public life including his political activities in the 1960s were transformed by Gestalt ideas and he presents revealing sketches of other major figures from those days Fritz Perls Wilhelm Reich A S Neill and others.
