warriors to rescue Elise and bring restoration to the Authority City the lines are drawn for a final battle between light and darkness The key to ultimate victory may rest within the strangely powerful girl who has felt forgotten but was never abandoned a truth she ll need to wage war against the powerful forces of evil      Leading the Calling Kathy Spencer, Ed.D., Lesley Eason, Ed.D., 2023-03-10 Educators are naturally viewed as reflective practitioners with time to think ponder vision and design being key to the art and craft of the role itself This is especially true of educational leaders teachers facilitators administrators and superintendents We know that we lead more effectively when practicing deep reflection demonstrating the desire to take action in order to serve others while honoring the greatness that exists in so many of our learning environments With deep reflection and action comes a lot of emotion a lot of conversations a lot of missteps and a lot of accomplishments It is these experiences that dictate the ultimate need to capture lessons learned One must understand that the lessons can provide a platform to assist one another in reaching higher addressing new challenges confidently persevering through extreme adversity and exploring opportunities never considered before as we all answer our own calling We consider the need for reflection by leaders as necessary to honor the past and to build a pathway to future success We find ourselves in unprecedented times in the world of educational leadership yet recognize that the principles and foundational pieces that have been a part of our work remain constant Embracing reflection allows us to honor the past while best serving in the unknown tumultuous and exciting future It creates the opportunity to unload and process our experiences while learning from one another We must provide a space that inspires others to engage in this during their leadership experiences This is the basis for our story      The Calling of the Church in Times of Polarization ,2022-10-31 In many societies all over the world an increasing polarization between contrasting groups can be observed Polarization arises when a fear born of difference turns into us versus them thinking and rules out any form of compromise This volume addresses polarizations within societies as well as within churches and asks the question given these dynamics what may be the calling of the church The authors offer new approaches to polarizing debates on topics such as racism social justice sexuality and gender euthanasia and ecology and agriculture in various contexts They engage in profound theological and ecclesiological reflection in particular from the Reformed tradition Contributors to this volume are Najib George Awad Henk van den Belt Nadine Bowers Du Toit Jaeseung Cha David Daniels David Fergusson Jan Jorrit Hasselaar Jozef Hehanussa Allan Janssen Klaas Willem de Jong Vikt ria K czi n Philipp Pattberg Louise Prideaux Emanuel Gerrit Singgih Peter Ben Smit Thandi Soko de Jong Wim van Vlastuin Jan Dirk Wassenaar Elizabeth Welch Annemarieke van der Woude and Heleen Zorgdrager
