How To Lie With Maps:

How to Lie with Maps Mark Monmonier, 2018-04-13 An updated edition of the humorous informative and perceptive guide to how maps can lead us astray Toronto Globe and Mail An instant classic when first published in 1991 How to Lie with Maps revealed how the choices mapmakers make consciously or unconsciously mean that every map inevitably presents only one of many possible stories about the places it depicts The principles Mark Monmonier outlined back then remain true today despite significant technological changes in the making and use of maps The introduction and spread of digital maps and mapping software however have added new wrinkles to the ever evolving landscape of modern mapmaking Fully updated for the digital age this new edition of How to Lie with Maps examines the myriad ways that technology offers new opportunities for cartographic mischief deception and propaganda While retaining the same brevity range and humor as its predecessors this third edition includes significant updates throughout as well as new chapters on image maps prohibitive cartography and online maps It also includes an expanded section of color images and an updated list of sources for further reading Praise for previous editions of How to Lie with Maps Will leave you much better defended against cheap atlases shoddy journalism unscrupulous advertisers predatory special interest groups and others who may use or abuse maps at your expense Christian Science Monitor

How to Lie with Maps Mark Monmonier, 2014-12-10 Originally published to wide acclaim this lively cleverly illustrated essay on the use and abuse of maps teaches us how to evaluate maps critically and promotes a healthy skepticism about these easy to manipulate models of reality Monmonier shows that despite their immense value maps lie In fact they must The second edition is updated with the addition of two new chapters 10 color plates and a new foreword by renowned geographer H J de Blij One new chapter examines the role of national interest and cultural values in national mapping organizations including the United States Geological Survey while the other explores the new breed of multimedia computer based maps To show how maps distort Monmonier introduces basic principles of mapmaking gives entertaining examples of the misuse of maps in situations from zoning disputes to census reports and covers all the typical kinds of distortions from deliberate oversimplifications to the misleading use of color Professor Monmonier himself knows how to gain our attention it is not in fact the lies in maps but their truth if always approximate and incomplete that he wants us to admire and use even to draw for ourselves on the facile screen His is an artful and funny book which like any good map packs plenty in little space Scientific American A useful guide to a subject most people probably take too much for granted It shows how map makers translate abstract data into eye catching cartograms as they are called It combats cartographic illiteracy It fights cartophobia It may even teach you to find your way For that alone it seems worthwhile Christopher Lehmann Haupt The New York Times witty examination of how and why maps lie The book conveys an important message about how statistics of any kind can be manipulated But it also communicates much of the challenge aesthetic appeal and sheer fun of maps Even those who hated geography in grammar school might well find a new enthusiasm for the subject after reading

Monmonier's lively and surprising book Wilson Library Bulletin A reading of this book will leave you much better defended against cheap atlases shoddy journalism unscrupulous advertisers predatory special interest groups and others who may use or abuse maps at your expense John Van Pelt Christian Science Monitor Monmonier meets his goal admirably His book should be put on every map user's must read list It is informative and readable a big step forward in helping us to understand how maps can mislead their readers Jeffrey S Murray Canadian Geographic How to Lie with Maps Mark S. Monmonier, 1991 Explains the basic principles of map making tells how to evaluate maps critically and looks at Nazi propaganda maps real estate developers plans and environmental impact maps Kartografisch tijdschrift, 1999
