Social History Hc:

Bibliography of European Economic and Social History Derek Howard Aldcroft, Richard Rodger, 1993 This bibliographical guide contains 10 000 references to the economic and social history of 30 European countries during the period 1700-1939. More than 3000 periodicals have been consulted to obtain references as well as books, edited collections and conference proceedings. The information is listed in categories such as industry, agriculture, finance, migration, labour, conditions, urban communities and organizations. Full publication details are included so that references may be located easily.

Studies in Economic and Social History Michael Oliver, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002. There are few students of European economic history who will not have come across the writings of Derek H. Aldcroft. His contributions to the field of economic and social history are vast and distinguish him as one of the most prolific economic historians of the 20th century. This volume honours Derek's contribution to the literature of economic and social history and its contents reflect his wide-ranging interests, particularly on issues relating to transport history and the growth and structural change in economies. From transport in the Industrial Revolution to late 20th century international financial architecture, the essays in this book contributed by leading economic historians are a tribute to a remarkable scholar.
