Social Networks And Social Influences In Adolescence:

Social Networks and Social Influences in Adolescence John Cotterell, 1996 Adolescence is a crucial time for the development of social identity. Some young people ease effortlessly into friendships with their peers whilst others experience the pain of rejection or become involved with antisocial groups or gangs. Social Networks and Social Influences in Adolescence is divided into three parts: part one examines the nature of peer groups in different settings including classroom groups and gangs and examines the influence of these groups on individuals. Part two explores young people's behaviour in the wider social environment and the implications of social acceptance or rejection for academic motivation, aggression and health risk behaviour. Finally, part three describes how professionals can support adolescents in building social attachments giving practical examples of how this is being done in various communities. Social Networks and Social Influences in Adolescence will prove invaluable for students and professionals working with young people.

Advanced Methodologies and Technologies in Media and Communications Khosrow-Pour, D.B.A., Mehdi, 2018-10-19. Social Networks in Youth and Adolescence John Cotterell, 2013-02-01. This thoroughly revised new edition looks at the nature of social networks, their changing configurations and the forces of influence they unleash in shaping the life experiences of young people between the ages of 12 and 25 years. The author draws on both social and psychological research to apply network thinking to the social relations of youth across the domains of school, work and society. Network thinking examines the pattern and nature of social ties and analyses how networks channel information, influence and support with effects on a wide range of life experiences. The book comprises eleven chapters which contain discussion on key topics such as youth transitions, network analysis, friendship, romantic ties, peer victimization, antisocial behaviour, youth risk taking, school motivation, career influence, youth citizenship and community organizations for young people. Chapters contain discussions of practical ways in which schools can provide support and suggestions for youth organizations on how to assist young people to become effective citizens.
