Social Security From Crisis To Crisis A Statement:

The Future of Social Security Policy Ailsa McKay, 2005-07-25 Current debates concerning the future of social security provision in advanced capitalist states have raised the issue of a citizen's basic income CBI as a possible reform package a proposal based on the principles of individuality universality and unconditionality which would ensure a minimum income guaranteed for all members of society Implementing a CBI would consequently entail radical reform of existing patterns of welfare delivery and would bring into question the institutionalized relationship between work and welfare Ailsa McKay's book makes a unique and positive contribution to the CBI literature by examining the proposal from a feminist economics perspective Gender concerns are central to any debate on the future of social security policy in that state intervention in the field of income redistribution has differential impacts on men and women By drawing attention to the potential a CBI has in promoting equal rights of freedom for men and women this book serves to open up the debate to incorporate a more realistic and inclusive vision of the nature of modern socio economic relationships

Social Security Bulletin , 1982 BCTGM Report , 2005 International Social Security Review , 2000 Food Aid in Sudan Susanne Jaspars, 2018-05-15 In 2004 the UN s Humanitarian Coordinator for Sudan called Darfur the world s worst humanitarian crisis A comprehensive food aid programme soon followed at the time the largest in the world Yet by 2014 while the crisis continued international agencies found they had limited access to much of the population with the Sudanese regime effectively controlling who received aid As a result acute malnutrition remains persistently high Food Aid in Sudan argues that the situation in Sudan is emblematic of a far wider problem Analysing the history of food aid in the country over fifty years Jaspars shows that such aid often serves to enrich local regimes and the private sector while leaving war torn populations in a state of permanent emergency Drawing on her decades of experience as an aid worker and researcher in the region and extensive interviews with workers in the food aid process Jaspars brings together two key topics of our time the failure of the humanitarian system to respond to today s crises and the crisis in the global food system Essential reading for students and researchers across the social sciences studying the nature and effectiveness of contemporary humanitarianism development and international aid
