Experience Mary Ann Suppes, Carolyn Cressy Wells, 2000 Created to introduce students to the field of social work and its relationship to social welfare policy The Social Work Experience gives readers both an historical and practical overview of the profession In each chapter the authors continue to integrate policy coverage with social work practice values and ethics and social justice issues The relationship between policy and practice is carefully examined in the context of nine major fields of social work and in discussions of the challenges faced by today s practitioners Comprehensive coverage is delivered in the highly readable style readers have come to expect of this author team with engaging case studies as chapter openers exhibit boxes debate boxes and research activity sections designed to draw readers into the text The third edition continues to keep up with current changes and developments in social work and social policy with valuable new information on welfare reform Social Security privatization of social services and the NASW Code of Ethics as well a new chapter on current career opportunities in the field Lesbian Health 101 Suzanne L. Dibble, Patricia Anne Robertson, 2010 This is the first comprehensive textbook on lesbian health reflecting the exponential increase in research on lesbian health over the past 10 years I highly recommend this textbook to all clinicians and students who provide health care for women and to inquisitive patients Susan Love MD President of the Susan Love Breast Cancer Foundation This book presents new and little known current and well researched material that is essential to combat myths and misinformation about lesbian health The intended audience is literally starved for this book Health care providers and lesbian health care advocates may be aware of some of the information in this book but none of us have the comprehensive understanding and knowledge base that this book provides It should be available in every curriculum where health care disparities are addressed and where LGBT health is taught Peggy Chinn PhD RN FAAN Professor Emerita University of Connecticut Each time a lesbian thinks about weight
