Making Sense Sophie Mützel, 2022-12-06 Breast cancer is one of the most commonly diagnosed cancers and a leading cause of death for women worldwide With advances in molecular engineering in the 1980s hopes began to rise that a non toxic and non invasive treatment for breast cancer could be developed These hopes were stoked by the researchers biotech companies and analysts who worked to make sense of the uncertainties during product development In Making Sense Sophie Mützel traces this emergence of innovative breast cancer therapeutics from the late 1980s up to 2010 through the lens of the narratives of the involved actors Combining theories of economic and cultural sociology Mützel shows how stories are integral for the emergence of new markets stories of the future create a market of expectations prior to any existing products stories also help to create categories on what such a new market and its products are about Making Sense uses thousands of press statements media reports scientific reports and financial and industry analyses and combines qualitative and large scale

computational text analyses to illustrate these mechanisms presenting a fresh view of how life prolonging innovations can be turned into market products Qualitative Research & Evaluation Methods Michael Quinn Patton, 2023-02-07 Drawing on more than 40 years of experience conducting applied social science research and program evaluation author Michael Quinn Patton has crafted the most comprehensive and systematic book on qualitative research and evaluation methods inquiry frameworks and analysis options available today Now offering more balance between applied research and evaluation this Fourth Edition illuminates all aspects of qualitative inquiry through new examples stories and cartoons more than a hundred new summarizing and synthesizing exhibits and a wide range of new highlight sections sidebars that elaborate on important and emergent issues For the first time full case studies are included to illustrate extended research and evaluation examples In addition each chapter features an extended rumination written in a voice and style more emphatic and engaging than traditional textbook style about a core issue of persistent debate and controversy Sociology and Social Research, 1981-10 Higher Education and Development Hubert Désiré Antoon Maes, 1984
