Monthly Bulletin - League of Red Cross Societies ,1927 Conference Report ,1929 Social Diagnosis (Classic Reprint) Mary E. Richmond,2017-09-18 Excerpt from Social Diagnosis With other practitioners with physicians and lawyers for ex ample there was always a basis of knowledge held in common If a neurologist had occasion to confer with a surgeon each could assume in the other a mastery of the elements of a whole group of basic sciences and of the formulated and transmitted experience of his own guild besides But what common knowledge could social workers assume in like case This was my query of fifteen years ago It seemed to me then and it is still my opinion that the elements of social diagnosis if formulated should constitute a part of the ground which all social case workers could occupy in common and that it should become possible in time to take for granted in every social practitioner a knowledge and mastery of those elements and of the modifications in them which each decade of practice would surely bring About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
