Social Problems Contemporary Readings:

Contemporary Readings in Social Problems Anna Leon-Guerrero, 2008-11-21 Companion reader to Anna Leon Guerrero's Social Problems 2nd Edition Social Problems, 1991 Social Problems Joel M. Charon, Lee Garth Vigilant, 2005-05 A unique and groundbreaking collection of 54 articles organized in 11 thematic sections SOCIAL PROBLEMS READINGS WITH FOUR QUESTIONS 2e takes a structural conflict approach yet lets the voices of those impacted by social problems be heard. The articles are a mix of classic and contemporary readings covering a wide range of issues in the United States and the world. The introductory article written by Joel Charon focuses on four questions that students are urged to apply throughout the reader: What is the problem? What makes the problem a social problem? What causes the problem? What can be done? This four questions approach gives students a consistent sociological framework within which to analyze social problems. The articles have been painstakingly selected to hold student interest, highlight contemporary social problems, and help professors show students how to think sociologically about the social problems around us Social Problems Anna

Leon-Guerrero, 2024-12-16 In Social Problems Community Policy and Social Action Anna Leon Guerrero provides a thorough exploration of the social problems that permeate our world today. The book is designed around three key connections: the link between sociology and the study of social problems, the relationship between social problems and their solutions, and the personal connection readers can make in recognizing and addressing social problems in their own communities. Each chapter focuses on a specific social problem, examining its roots in social inequality and its manifestations in various social policies and programs. The Eighth Edition is enriched with personal stories of ordinary individuals who have accomplished extraordinary feats in their communities, providing readers with inspiration and guidance on how they too can make a difference Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh, Rosie Campbell, Mike Keating, 2014-05-12

Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues, theories, and debates, providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists. Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework, and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research. The text is divided into four main sections: Part One, Origins and Concepts, surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation; in particular, social control, culture, and socialisation. Parts Two and Four, Sociological Theories and Sociological Research, include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators, including Auguste Comte, Emile Durkheim, Karl Marx, Max Weber, and Charles Booth, and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches. The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities. Part Three, these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied Seeing Social Problems Brandon Lang, Molly Monahan Lang, 2019-12-13 Seeing Social Problems: Readings on Contemporary Issues in the United States provides students with engaging thought provoking articles that examine a wide array of current social issues the types of behaviors that perpetuate such problems and how these issues affect the daily lives of Americans Students are invited to critically consider how key issues have evolved and changed over time and to devise new ways for society to improve both as people and as a nation The reader is divided into eight sections Opening sections address socioeconomic inequality and poverty racial and ethnic inequality gender inequality and homophobia and crime Later sections explore social problems related to medicine and health families education and the environment The revised first edition features up to date information on several important issues including race gender crime health care drug abuse and pollution Recent developments related to the Black Lives Matter and MeToo movements Obamacare and environmental justice are addressed A new reading concerning the American opioid crisis has also been added Developed to inspire critical thought and a greater understanding of contemporary issues Seeing Social Problems is an ideal resource for courses in sociology Brandon Lang earned his Ph D in sociology at North Carolina State University He is an associate professor in the Department of Sociology Social Work and Criminal Justice at Bloomsbury University Dr Lang s areas of interest include the sociology of sports and community public and environmental sociology His writing has appeared in numerous journals including Culture and Agriculture Technology in Society and Journal of Environmental Education Dr Lang is a member of the International Sociology of Sport Association and the Eastern Sociological Society Molly Monahan Lang earned her Ph D in sociology at North Carolina State University She is an assistant teaching professor of sociology at Penn State Behrend Dr Monahan Lang s research interests include the intersections of race social class and gender within social institutions with particular emphasis on marriages and death dying
