Social Studies Wars:

The Social Studies Curriculum E. Wayne Ross, 2014-11-01 The Social Studies Curriculum Fourth Edition updates the definitive overview of the issues teachers face when creating learning experiences for students in social studies. The book connects the diverse elements of the social studies curriculum: civic, global, social issues, offering a unique and critical perspective that separates it from other texts. Completely updated, this book includes twelve new chapters on the history of the social studies, democratic social studies, citizenship education, anarchist inspired transformative social studies, patriotism, ecological democracy, Native studies, inquiry teaching, Islamophobia, capitalism and class struggle, gender, sex, sexuality, and youth experiences in school, and critical media literacy. All the chapters from the previous edition have been thoroughly revised and updated, including those on teaching social studies in the age of curriculum standardization and high stakes testing, critical multicultural social studies, prejudice and racism, assessment and teaching democracy. Readers are encouraged to reconsider their assumptions and understanding about the origins, purposes, nature, and possibilities of the social studies curriculum.

Social Studies Today Walter C. Parker, 2015-04-10 Social Studies Today will help educators, teachers, curriculum specialists, and researchers think deeply about contemporary social studies education. More than simply learning about key topics, this collection invites readers to think through some of the most relevant, dynamic, and challenging questions animating social studies education today. With 12 new chapters highlighting recent developments in the field, the second edition features the work of major scholars such as James Banks, Diana Hess, Joel Westheimer, Meira Levinson, Sam Wineburg, Beth Rubin, Keith Barton, Margaret Crocco, and more. Each chapter tackles a specific question on issues such as the difficulties of teaching historical thinking in the classroom, responding to high stakes testing, teaching patriotism, judging the credibility of Internet sources and teaching with film and geospatial technologies Accessible compelling and practical these chapters full of rich examples and illustrations showcase some of the most original thinking in the field and offer pre and in service teachers alike a panoramic window on social studies curricula and instruction and new ways to improve them Walter C Parker is Professor and Chair of Social Studies Education and by courtesy Professor of Political Science at the University of Washington Seattle
