Sociological Writings Vilfredo Pareto, 1966

Seminal Sociological Writings, Volume 2 Richard Altschuler, 2014-10

The writings of Harriet Martineau and W E B Du Bois generally known as the first woman and black founders of sociology bookend this rich collection of pioneering works that created the science of society. The sixteen writings in this anthology originally appeared in articles and books published from the mid nineteenth century to the early twentieth century. They are therefore primary source documents that allow modern readers to see how the authors introduced their paradigm changing concepts that shattered earlier perceptions of society concepts such as culture lag collective bargaining human ecology iron law of oligarchy and class conflict which still largely influence the way twenty first century social scientists think about and study human relationships institutions societies and cultures. Along with the writings of Martineau and Du Bois this volume features original works by other major founders of sociology including Beatrice Webb Vilfredo Pareto Jane Addams Robert Michels William F Ogburn Robert E Park Friedrich Engels Henry Sumner Maine Walter Bagehot Ludwig Gumplowicz Charlotte Perkins Gilman Albion Small Gustav Ratzenhofer Ernest Burgess and Franz Oppenheimer. The groundbreaking writings in this anthology which is a companion volume to Seminal Sociological Writings From Auguste Comte to Max Weber 2010 can serve as either a primary or ancillary text in courses on the history of sociology and sociological theory. It will also enlighten all individuals interested in the birth and development of the social sciences.

Seminal Sociological Writings Richard Altschuler, 2010. This book fills a void by assembling seminal writings from many original works that created the science of society by Auguste Comte mile Durkheim Karl Marx Herbert Spencer George Herbert Mead Ferdinand T nnies Georg Simmel Thorsten Veblen Max Weber and other founding fathers of sociology. The seminal writings in this anthology originally appeared in articles and books published from the mid 19th century to the early 20th century. They are therefore primary source documents that allow modern students to see how the authors introduced the paradigm changing constructs that shattered earlier perceptions of reality. They include social class conspicuous consumption division of labor collective consciousness social self survival of the fittest anomie culture lag charisma social solidarity and other concepts that dominate how social scientists today think about and study human relationships institutions societies and cultures. In addition to allowing students to experience the great theorists thoughts and reasoning processes directly these primary source documents provide an invaluable research resource because they were written by the theorists in the first person as they were undergoing their groundbreaking theoretical insights and discoveries and while they were recording reflecting on witnessing and living through the phenomena that engaged them as they occurred. For these reasons and more Seminal Sociological Writings From Comte to Weber is an important resource that can serve as either a primary or ancillary text in courses on theory and will enlighten all scholars and laypersons interested in the birth and development of the social sciences.
