Sociologism Existentialism Two Perspec:

Sociologism and Existentialism, Two Perspectives on the Individual and Society Edward A. Tiryakian, 1962 Emile Durkheim Steven Lukes, 1985 This study of Durkheim seeks to help the reader to achieve a historical understanding of his ideas and to form critical judgments about their value To some extent these two aims are contradictory On the one hand one seeks to understand what did Durkheim really mean how did he see the world how did his ideas relate to one another and how did they develop how did they relate to their biographical and historical context how were they received what influence did they have and to what criticism were they subjected what was it like not to make certain distinctions not to see certain errors of fact or of logic not to know what has subsequently become known On the other hand one seeks to assess how valuable and how valid are the ideas to what fruitful insights and explanations do they lead how do they stand up to analysis and to the evidence what is their present value Yet it seems that it is only by inducing oneself not to see and only by seeing them that one can make a critical assessment The only solution is to pursue both aims seeing and not seeing simultaneously More particularly this book has the primary object of achieving that sympathetic understanding without which no adequate critical assessment is possible It is a study in intellectual history which is also intended as a contribution to sociological theory

The Routledge International Handbook of Existential Human Science Huon Wardle, Nigel Rapport, Albert Piette, 2023-08-01 This volume is the first handbook to explore existentialism as epistemology and method Transdisciplinary in scope it considers the nature of human subjectivity and how human experience ought to be studied examining the connections that exist between the individual's imagining of the world and their everyday practice within it With attention to the question of whether humans are ultimately alone in their self knowledge or whether what they know of themselves is constructed in common with others it enables the reader to recognize core questions that frame the methods and orientation of an existential inquiry In addition to historical exposition it offers a variety of chapters from around the world that explore the diverse global spaces for and different types of existential focus and discussion thus questioning the view that the existential problem may be singularly a matter for the post enlightenment West The fullest and most comprehensive survey to date of what human beings can and should make of themselves The Routledge International Handbook of Existential Human Science will appeal to scholars across the humanities and social sciences with interests in anthropology sociology philosophy and research methods

Languages of Belief and Early Sociology in Nineteenth-Century France Michiel Van Dam, 2024-09-27 This book presents a new reading of the history of French social science and religion through an investigation of early sociology's techniques for narrating the category of belief The author argues that by looking at the history of social sciences in this manner we gain a deeper understanding of both our present debates on post secularity as well as our modernist past both of which were thoroughly shaped by their reflections and critiques on the notion of belief yet failed to enter into any sort of meaningful communication with each other This book seeks to rectify this failure by introducing the concept of belief languages an anthropological framework designed to historicize different discussions on belief and allow for their comparative description and analysis     The Perspective of Historical Sociology Jiří Šubrt, 2017-11-09 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the themes that make up the field of Historical Sociology At its centre is the human individual as related to social and historical development The key question it raises is who or what is responsible for the process of human history society or the individual     Tijdschrift voor filosofie ,1963     The Sage Encyclopedia of Qualitative Research Methods: A-L ; Vol. 2, M-Z Index Lisa M.
