 Zwart, 2023 This monograph studies opera as music drama guided by four ideas opera as an ambiance setting an acoustic stage where dramatic action becomes possible as a Gesamtkunstwerk incorporating other arts forms into a coherent whole as archaeology revivifying lost worlds of experience and as a dialectical syllogism resulting in the negation of a paralysing negation via a dramatic act We focus on Richard Wagner as composer and author but also address other music dramas by Giacomo Puccini and John Adams adopting a Hegelian dialectical perspective but involving other dialectical thinkers e g Jörg Kurt Grütter, 2020-10-14 This book makes the extremely complex process of architectural perception far more transparent and thus contributes to a better understanding of our built environment Why is there so much debate about the appearance of our built environment about the aesthetics of architecture today Why do opinions about the aesthetic quality of buildings often diverge extremely even among experts Why can t we agree on architecture on what is beautiful and what is not Most areas of construction such as statics and building physics are measurable and can therefore be substantiated with objective arguments Yet this does not apply to the unquantifiable aesthetics of architecture Accordingly judgments on aesthetics are always subject specific and strongly dependent on the viewer Nevertheless the aesthetics of architecture is not just a matter of taste Many relationships between buildings as objects and viewers as subjects can be determined objectively with the help of perceptual psychology and information theory as this book demonstrates
