,1875 Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review ,1875 Philosophy in Imperial Russia's Theological Academies Thomas Nemeth,2023-07-04 This work is a historical study of the philosophical writings emerging from Imperial Russia s theological academies Orthodoxy s higher educational institutions that ran parallel to the secular universities from their inception to the aftermath of the Bolshevik Revolution Unlike with nineteenth century Russian revolutionary thought there are few secondary studies of the philosophical works stemming from the academies These philosophical works focused on ontology and as such stand in sharp contrast to the shift toward epistemology in that century as happened in Germany Another feature of the academy philosophies was the continual and explicit attempt to set themselves apart from the pervasive subjectivism of Western philosophical systems although a largely unacknowledged influence persisted At no time did the academy philosophers look to rational inquiry for more than an assist in understanding their theology Instead they appealed to tradition and to an alleged direct insight into religious truths at the expense of logic and rational argument The ultimate result was the peculiar historical insularity of their community and concomitantly a subservience to the political state traits that persist to this day     Baptist Commonwealth ,1900     The Unitarian Jabez Thomas Sunderland,Brooke Herford,Frederick B.
