Journal of Economic Literature ,2014 The Inner Lives of Markets Ray Fisman,Tim Sullivan,2016-06-07 America s economic revolution isn t just driven by technology It s about markets The past twenty five years have witnessed a remarkable shift in how we get the stuff we want If you ve ever owned a business rented an apartment or shopped online you ve had a front row seat for this revolution in progress Breakthrough companies like Amazon and Uber have disrupted the old ways and made the economy work better all thanks to technology At least that s how the story of the modern economy is usually told But in this lucid wry book Ray Fisman and Tim Sullivan show that the revolution is bigger than tech it is really a story about the transformation of markets From the auction theories that power Google s ad sales algorithms to the models that online retailers use to prevent internet fraud even the most high tech modern businesses are empowered by theory first envisioned by economists And we re all participants in this revolution Every time you book a room on Airbnb hire a car on Lyft or click on an ad you too are reshaping our social institutions and our lives The Inner Lives of Markets is necessary reading for the modern world it reveals the blueprint for how we work live and shop and offers wisdom for how to do it better receives a low rating on the scorecard there will likely be a negative effect on their profit compared to a company with a high rating The basic critique of BEE is that its main beneficiary is a small elite Studies about the actual effects of BEE are rare as data on this topic is limited Transport Susan Hanson, Mei-po Kwan, 2008 This series of articles charts the development of thinking about space place and transport Divided into four parts the articles cover fundamental concepts individual behaviour in urban spatial context inter regional transport and policy issues Taken together the articles highlight the role that a geographic perspective has played in transport studies raise questions about transport policy and point to additional questions worthy of research Canadian Journal of Fisheries and Aquatic Sciences ,2014 Paper ,1920 Power-steam ,1890 Engineering and Mining Journal ,1888 Railroad Age Gazette ,1884
