Een lekenboek in woord en beeld Bernadette Kramer,2013 Al snel nadat het Speculum humanae salvationis werd geschreven rond 1300 behoorde het tot de standaardwerken met typologische verklaring van de Bijbel De verhalen uit het leven van Maria en Christus worden telkens geplaatst tegenover drie oudtestamentische verhalen om te laten zien hoe de komst van Christus was voorspeld in het Oude Testament De tekst heeft een rijk illustratieprogramma met vier afbeeldingen per hoofdstuk en functioneerde als inspiratiebron voor predikers In haar boek schetst Bernadette Kramer hoe het Speculum humanae salvationis in de vijftiende eeuw kon worden gebruikt door een ander publiek Hierbij staat de Spegel der minschliken zalicheid centraal ms GkS 79 KB Kopenhagen Een analyse van de iconografische veranderingen in de illustraties toont aan dat dit in het Brugse Goudranken atelier vervaardigde handschrift is afgestemd op persoonlijke catechese en devotie van leken Tekst illustraties en woord beeldrelaties benvloeden gezamenlijk de performatieve leeservaring

Excavating the Medieval Image David S. Areford,2017-11-30 Medieval images especially manuscript illuminations have long been treated independently of the contexts in which they were created These beautiful miniature paintings frequently valued as keepers of documentary evidence or as curious artistic commodities have only recently become the focus of art historians concerned with new questions related to artistic working methods audience and the status of the visual in the Middle Ages and the modern era Excavating the Medieval Image argues that the illuminated image is best understood as thoroughly integrated in the material context of the manuscript and thus integrated in a cultural context of production and reception Seen in this way the illuminated manuscript becomes a kind of archaeological site which must be carefully unearthed layer by layer The fourteen essays gathered here are written by scholars of both medieval and Renaissance art history and demonstrate varied methodological approaches that combine the pursuits of traditional connoisseurship and iconography with those of critical theory and historiography In addition the authors contribute more broadly to important interdisciplinary issues such as the study of gender text and image and the history of literacy and the book The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane,2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture      Text and Image David W. Burchmore,1986

A Gust for Paradise Diane Kelsey McColley,1993 This beautifully illustrated multidisciplinary study addresses

interpretations of the Genesis creation story in Paradise Lost and other seventeenth century English poems and in the visual arts from the Middle Ages through the Reformation. It considers poems, visual images and music concerned with divine and human creativity and interprets these works as salutary examples for the creation of the arts and the preservation of the earth. The central topic is the daily work of body or mind of Adam and Eve in Paradise Lost as primal artists and caretakers of nature before the Fall developing the arts of language, music, liturgy and government discovering the rudiments of a technology harmless to the biosphere and dressing and keeping a garden that is an epitome of the whole earth. These unfallen arts promote awareness of the complex harmonies of creation and potentially of civilization an awareness that is not only linear or binary but radiant and multiple not only monodic but also choral. McColley argues that northern European visual artists and seventeenth century English poets reimagined Eden in order to re-Edenize the imagination as a source of ethical and ecological healing. The best known depictions of Adam and Eve in the visual arts which focus on the drama of the all depart from a widespread but undervalued tradition that more celebratory and regenerative and less susceptible to misogynous interpretation. This tradition includes the neglected topos of original righteousness and contributes to what we would now call ecological awareness. Poets allied to this view foster Edenic consciousness by creating a Paradisal language that weaves form, sound, image, metaphor, concept and experience as closely as nature weaves life and so exercises our sense of connections.

Studies in the Reception of the Historia Scholastica of Peter Comestor Maria Sherwood-Smith, 2000

The Historia Scholastica circa 1170 mingles biblical narrative, Jewish legends and commentary and was a popular source of biblical material for authors until the Reformation. Maria Sherwood Smith gives an introduction to the sources and transmission of the Latin work before investigating its reception in detail in two thirteenth century German works the Schwarzwälder Predigten and the Weltchronik of Rudolf von Ems. Briefer analyses of Jacob van Maerlant's Scholastica and the Historiebijbel van 1360 provide further context. Looking in this way at the different functions the work fulfills for later authors one discerns a growing awareness of the distinction between it and the text of the Bible. It is suggested that this enhances the Historia Scholastica's reputation as a safeguard of orthodoxy.
