Anderson,2000 These essays highlight the shifting sets of relationships which determine the forms taken by desire They argue that the spread of the subject within and across geographic ethnic class and gender boundaries makes a difference to the ways in which desire is theorized experienced and represented

Rethinking the Erotic: Eroticism in Literature, Film, Art and Society Katarzyna Popak-Bernat,Sara D'Arcy,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 The erotic is a complex and highly problematic phenomenon that scholars have agonised over for centuries Generally speaking the erotic refers to sex and sexuality However it is a multifaceted term that holds multiple meanings for different people The erotic on the one hand is personal a collection of thoughts feelings beliefs and sensations shared with one s self or other people On the other hand it is explicitly public subject to censorship scientific study penalisation political debate and reproduction in art It is also the basis of this volume which includes chapters from 14 different authors who presented their ideas on eroticism at the 7th Global Conference The Erotic Exploring Critical Issues at Mansfield College Oxford in September 2012 This volume offers a broad perspective on issues of the erotic with the authors representing not only a wide variety of academic and non academic disciplines but also a range of countries from across the globe

Writing Off the Hyphen Jose L. Torres-Padilla,Carmen Haydee Rivera,2011-12-01 The sixteen essays in Writing Off the Hyphen approach the literature of the Puerto Rican diaspora from current theoretical positions with provocative and insightful results The authors analyze how the diasporic experience of Puerto Ricans is played out in the context of class race gender and sexuality and how other themes emerging from postcolonialism and postmodernism come into play Their critical work also demonstrates an understanding of how the process of migration and the relations between Puerto Rico and the United States complicate notions of cultural and national identity as writers confront their bilingual bicultural and transnational realities The collection has considerable breadth and depth It covers earlier undertheorized writers such as Luisa Capetillo Pedro Juan Labarthe Bernardo Vega Pura Belp R Arturo Schomburg and Graciany Miranda Archilla Prominent writers such as Rosario Ferr and Judith Ortiz Cofer are discussed alongside often neglected writers such as Honolulu based Rodney Morales and gay writer Manuel Ramos Otero The essays cover all the genres and demonstrate that current theoretical ideas and approaches create exciting opportunities and possibilities for the study of Puerto Rican diasporic literature

British Fiction Today Rod Mengham, Philip Tew, 2006-11-07. British Fiction Today provides students and readers with a critical introduction to key authors and novels since 1990 and provides the latest critical perspectives on current British fiction. It offers comprehensive and up to date coverage of a broad range of selected contemporary authors, drawing together both established and emerging literary voices reflecting the scope of the new British writing. The book is organised around common themes: Modern Lives, Contemporary Living, Dreamtime, States of Identity and Histories. Each section begins with a short introductory essay and ends with a guide to further reading. Introducing key works, writers and major themes, including post colonialism, pluralism, gender and history, this book is the ideal guide to British fiction today. Includes discussion of Martin Amis, Julian Barnes, Jonathan Coe, Alan Hollinghurst, Peter Ackroyd, Jenny Diski, Ben Okri, Salman Rushdie, Toby Litt, Ian McEwan, Zadie Smith, Jeanette Winterson, Pat Barker, A S Byatt, Adam Thorpe and Sarah Waters.

Rituparno Ghosh Sangeeta Datta, Kaustav Bakshi, Rohit K. Dasgupta, 2015-11-19. An iconic filmmaker and inheritor of the legendary Satyajit Ray's legacy, Rituparno Ghosh was one of the finest auteurs to emerge out of contemporary Bengal. His films, though rooted firmly in middle class values, desires and aspirations, are highly critical of hetero-patriarchal power structures. From the very outset, Ghosh displayed a strong feminist sensibility which later evolved into radical queer politics. This volume analyses his films, his craft, his stardom and his contribution to sexual identity politics. In this first scholarly study undertaken on Rituparno Ghosh, the essays discuss the cultural import of his work within the dynamics of a rapidly evolving film industry in Bengal and more largely the cinematic landscape of India. The anthology also contains a conversation section, interviews with the filmmaker and with industry cast and crew, drawing a critical and personal portrait of this remarkable filmmaker.

Camp Comforts Christian Lassen, 2014-03-15. Camp Comforts investigates the wide ranging impact of camp on AIDS literature and places this impact within two different traditions of camp analysis: a politically subversive one that aims at social change and an aesthetically uplifting one that aims at personal healing. Christian Lassen argues that camp may in fact serve both ends: social change and personal healing, and goes on to explore reparative reading practices in order to rehabilitate alleviation and relief as vital objectives in literary representations of gay grief. In this way, Camp Comforts reveals the workings that make camp so crucial a strategy for survival in times of AIDS.
