Terrorism Asymmetric Warfare And Weapons Of Mass Destruction Defending The U S Homeland:

Terrorism, Asymmetric Warfare, and Weapons of Mass Destruction Anthony H. Cordesman, 2001-11-30 There is a wide spectrum of potential threats to the U S homeland that do not involve overt attacks by states using long range missiles or conventional military forces Such threats include covert attacks by state actors state use of proxies independent terrorist and extremist attacks by foreign groups or individuals and independent terrorist and extremist attacks by residents of the United States These threats are currently limited in scope and frequency but are emerging as potentially significant issues for future U S security In this comprehensive work Cordesman argues that new threats require new thinking and offers a range of recommendations from expanding the understanding of what constitutes a threat and bolstering Homeland defense measures to bettering resource allocation and improving intelligence gathering and analysis No pattern of actual attacks on U S territory has yet emerged that provides a clear basis for predicting how serious any given form of attack might be in the future what means of attack might be used or how lethal new forms of attack might be As a result there is a major ongoing debate over the seriousness of the threat and how the U S government should react This work is an invaluable contribution to that debate America's Challenges in an Unstable World Frances K. Scott, 2002 Salvaging American Defense Anthony H. Cordesman, 2007-04-30 Anthony Cordesman offers a detailed analysis of ten major challenges affecting U S national security systematically identifying current failures and inefficiencies and proposing constructive ways to proceed in the future The War on Terrorism Thomas A. Johnson, 2008-11-13 In order to eradicate terrorism our nation must go beyond merely shoring up military strength It must also effectively confront the fundamentalist ideology that fuels and supports the terrorists The War on Terrorism A Collision of Values Strategies and Societies operates on the premise that the violent rejection of globalization at the root of The Military Balance in the Middle East Anthony H. Cordesman, 2004-09-30 Noted Middle East military expert Anthony H Cordesman details the complex trends that come into play in determining the military balance in a region that has become so critical to world peace This ready resource provides a wealth of information on military expenditures and major arms systems as well as qualitative trends by country and by zone However as Cordesman stresses because the greater Middle East is more a matter of rhetoric than military reality mere data summarizing trends in 23 different countries is no substitute for a substantive explanation Using tables graphs and charts this study explores every aspect of the regional military balance with attention to sub regional balances internal civil conflicts and low level border tensions The Middle East is certainly one of the most militarized areas in the world and changes in technology access to weapons of mass destruction and political instability contribute to a situation that has long been in constant flux Some of the regional flashpoints covered in this study include the Maghreb North Africa the Arab Israeli conflict dominated by Israel versus Syria and the Gulf divided into those states that view Iran as the primary threat and those who lived in fear of Iraq Internal conflicts such as those in Mauritania Algeria Libya Egypt Sudan Bahrain Saudi Arabia Iraq and Yemen increasingly dominate regional tensions In addition border conflicts within the region and with neighboring countries could further aggravate the delicate balance Iraq's Military Capabilities in 2002 Anthony H.
