Nath, John M. Ramsey, 2007-09 Connect History is an innovative online assignment and assessment platform which combines a fully integrated eBook with powerful learning and teaching tools. Tools that make assessment easier, learning more engaging, and studying more efficient. For example, within Connect History, engaging interactives such as Critical Missions immerse students in pivotal historical events, ask them to explore these situations, and then make recommendations based on their findings. Connect History sharpens students' analytical skills, increases historical understanding, and improves overall course success.    The Blues Encyclopedia Edward Komara, Peter Lee, 2004-07-01 The Blues Encyclopedia is the first full length, authoritative Encyclopedia on the Blues as a musical form. While other books have collected biographies of blues performers, none have taken a scholarly approach. A to Z in format, this Encyclopedia covers not only the performers, but also musical styles, regions, record labels, and cultural aspects of the blues, including race and gender issues. Special attention is paid to discographies and bibliographies.

Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips, gadgets, and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science, PM is the ultimate guide to our high-tech lifestyle.    Theory and Composition of Percussion Music Geary Lerrick, 2004 Lerrick shares his knowledge of the theory and composition of percussion music. In the first section, more than a dozen brief entries address such topics as music education's treatment of drummers and the notation of Western music. In the second section, Lerrick presents an annotated bibliography of music theory books found in the University Library at the U of Wisconsin Stevens Point. The third section contains bibliographical references for a wide range of materials relating to percussion. A life-long performer, Lerrick is the author of a number of scholarly books on percussion.
