Susan Point:

Susan Point Dale Croes, Susan Point, Gary Wyatt, 2014 A gorgeous collection of prints by one of the Northwest's leading artists. Over the past thirty years Susan Point has become the preeminent Coast Salish artist of her generation exploring many different modern and traditional themes in a wide variety of media. She has received major public commissions in her home province of British Columbia as well as throughout the Northwest coast, the traditional territory of her people, creating extraordinary monumental sculptures that grace important public buildings. Her glass sculptures are collected around the world. This is the first book devoted exclusively to her works on paper. Over the past thirty years Point has been an innovator in printmaking, adapting traditional Coast Salish themes to modern art techniques, translating the heritage of her culture to the wider world while creating a body of work that appeals to art collectors from around the globe. Her synthesis of contemporary and traditional styles has resulted in a formidable artistic accomplishment. This beautifully designed volume collects 160 of her prints together for the first time and is sure to inspire and amaze those who see it. Painting Native

America Nicolas G. Rosenthal, 2026 Generations of Indigenous artists have sought to make a place for Native art in North American culture and society as well as the broader art world. Written at the intersection of history and art history, Painting Native America tells the social history of Indigenous artists and their experiences as they negotiate such questions as how to use art for social and political goals, what constitutes Indian art, and how to make a living as an artist, showing how each generation's approach to these issues in the twentieth century was shaped by previous struggles. Nicolas G. Rosenthal demonstrates that by exhibiting their paintings in museums, galleries, and public spaces, Native American artists rewrote dominant narratives of North American history, foregrounding Native perspectives while indigenizing the art world. Featuring seventy color illustrations, Painting Native America examines generations of American Indian and First Nations painters, including Oscar Howe, Pablita Velarde, Allan Houser, Woody Crumbo, T. C. Cannon, Fritz Scholder, Frank LaPena, Jean LaMarr, and others. Rosenthal situates Indigenous artists in twentieth-century modernity, attesting to the dynamism of survivance and the cultural and visual sovereignty practiced by these artists. Rosenthal also provides one of the first social and urban histories of Indigenous artists and art scenes in the North American West and examines the origins of the regional art scenes these artists created in Oklahoma, New Mexico, California, and British Columbia.

Feminism and Film Theory Constance Penley, 2013-07-04 First published in 1988, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informal company. Discovering

Totem Poles Aldona Jonaitis, 2016-06-01 Rising from a forest mist or soaring overhead in parks and museums, magnificent cedar totem poles have captured the attention and imagination of visitors to Washington State, British Columbia, and Alaska. Discovering Totem Poles is the first guidebook to focus on the complex and fascinating histories of the specific poles visitors encounter in Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver, Alert Bay, Prince Rupert, Haida Gwaii, Queen Charlotte Islands, Ketchikan, Sitka, and Juneau. It debunks common misconceptions about totem poles and explores the stories behind the making and displaying of

90 different poles Travelers with this guide in their pockets will return home with a deeper knowledge of the monumental carvings their place in history and the people who made them Watch the book trailer <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iAaAnYctJcg>

Susan Point Gary Wyatt, Michael Kew, Kenji Nagai, 2000 Native American Salish artist Susan Point did not take up art until she was in her late twenties but since then has immersed herself in the study of traditional Coast Salish art and culture She says Coast Salish art is relatively unknown to most people today as it was an almost lost art form after European contact the reason being that Salish lands were the first to be settled by Europeans Because of this over the years I have spent a great deal of my time trying to revive traditional Coast Salish art and also attempting to educate the public to the fact that there was and still is another art indigenous to the central Pacific Northwest Coast Point's striking and distinctive art from jewelry in precious metals to prints paintings and monumental pieces in wood and glass has won worldwide acclaim and a worldwide audience An innovator with a strong personal style she likes to express ancestral concepts and designs in media such as glass and bronze as well as the more traditional wood In creating my art she says I feel a need to continually express my cultural background and beliefs yet at the same time my work continues to evolve with changes both within and outside of my community Michael Kew describes the traditional art culture and beliefs of the central Coast Salish which of all the Northwest Coast cultures is among the least familiar to the general public Because much of the art was closely associated with private religious expression it was seldom displayed or sold to collectors Peter Macnair contributes an engaging and enlightening biography that looks at the artistic evolution of Susan Point Bill McLennan briefly examines the tradition of housepost carving among the Coast Salish and Susan Point's interpretations of these large woodcarvings
