

The Swallow

By Christina Rossetti

Fly away, fly away over the sea,
Sun-loving swallow, for summer is done;
Come again, come again, come back to me,
Bringing the summer and bringing the sun.

Swallow: Poems Miranda Field, 2002-08 From the microcosmic wilderness of an overgrown back yard to the cool glassed in exhibits in a natural history museum Swallow swoops and darts tangling the lines we draw between the wild and the cultivated In her debut collection Miranda Field explores a world composed equally of shadow and substance filled not just with beauty but also with a kind of savage experience But Swallow is more than a crisscrossing of boundaries It is an imperative a dare Go ahead do as Eve did let hunger take you wherever it will According to James Longenbach these poems are too beautifully made to idealize freedom too much in love with vicissitude to idealize beauty Read these poems enter them and be hungry forever What Are Poets For? Gerald L Bruns, 2012-06 Conceptions and practices of poetry change not only from time to time and from place to place but also from poet to poet This has never been more the case than in recent years Gerald Bruns's magisterial What Are Poets For explores typographical experiments that distribute letters randomly across a printed page sound tracks made of vocal and buccal noises and holographic poems that recompose themselves as one travels through their digital space Bruns surveys one word poems found texts and book length assemblies of disconnected phrases he even includes descriptions of poems that no one could possibly write but which are no less interesting or no less poetic for all of that The purpose of the book is to illuminate this strange poetic landscape spotlighting and describing such oddities as they appear anomalies that most contemporary poetry criticism ignores Naturally this breadth raises numerous philosophical questions that Bruns also addresses for example whether poetry should be responsible semantically ethically politically to anything outside itself whether it can be reduced to categories distinctions and the rule of identity and whether a particular poem can seem odd or strange when everything is an anomaly Perhaps our task is simply to learn like anthropologists how to inhabit such an anarchic world The poets taken up for study are among the most important and innovative in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries John Ashbery Charles Bernstein Paul Celan Kenneth Goldsmith Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Karen Mac Cormack Steve McCaffery John Matthias J H Prynne and Tom Raworth What Are Poets For is nothing less than a lucid detailed study of some of the most intractable writings in contemporary poetry Poems, journals, and essays Thomas Gray, 1876 Maud, the Princess, Enoch Arden and Other Poems... Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson, 1899 Romantic Women Poets, 1770-1838 Andrew Ashfield, 1995 Although overshadowed by their male contemporaries Wordsworth Coleridge Keats Shelley and Byron the women Romantic poets of the late 18th and early 19th centuries made a significant contribution to Romanticism Nearly 40 poets are represented in this collection including Elizabeth Barrett and Anna Seward providing a comprehensive picture of female
