The Apocalypse Door:

The Christ of the Apocalypse: Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation Msgr. A. Robert Nusca, 2018-06-30 That the Apocalypse of John is a Revelation of Jesus Christ Rev 1 1 is a fact too often overlooked by interpreters of this last book of the Bible As Msgr A Robert Nusca s The Christ of the Apocalypse Contemplating the Faces of Jesus in the Book of Revelation proposes beyond predictions of earthquakes and falling stars St John articulates from start to finish a multifaceted and compelling portrait of Jesus Christ Nusca offers an exegetical reading of selected verses of the Book of Revelation incorporating rich spiritual and pastoral reflections The Christ of the Apocalypse above all affirms that St John s God and Christ centered symbolic universe offers our contemporary world a spiritual place to stand amid the shifting sands of postmodernity As Cardinal Thomas Collins Archbishop of Toronto writes in his Foreword Now as in the first century Christians face martyrdom and those who are not called to die for Christ are called to live for Christ in a world which in many ways rejects the Gospel More than ever we need the apocalyptic vision to have our own vision of reality clarified and to be strengthened in our evangelical witness

The Mandate of the Church in the Apocalypse of John Olutola K. Peters, 2005 The Mandate of the Church in the Apocalypse of John fills a gap in the scholarly literature on the Apocalypse of John by offering a comprehensive discussion of what the Church is called upon to be and do It delineates various tasks and functions of the Church showing how they relate to one another and also how they are all unified under the mandate to provide faithful witness to Jesus With its strong emphasis on the ethical concerns of the Apocalypse this book challenges the view that John s Apocalypse is sub Christian in its ethics
