Through Werner's memories, young readers will explore the inner workings of the giant airship, marvel at the breathtaking vistas from its observation windows, and hold their breath during Werner's terrifying escape from the fiery devastation. My mind didn't start working again until I was on the ground, Werner said later. Then I started running. An 11-year-old boy fights to survive a historical disaster when the German Hindenburg airship catches fire during a fatal landing attempt in 1937, New Jersey. Fire in the Sky Charles River Editors, 2017-11-09. On May 6, 1937, the famous passenger zeppelin burst into flames while attempting to dock in New Jersey, and the horrific scenes were captured on film and broadcast over the radio. The Hindenburg was carrying nearly 100 people and was still hundreds of feet in the air when it caught fire, so the fact that only 35 people died between the fire and the airship plummeting to the ground was much lower than it could have been. Nonetheless, the fact that the world could see the incredible sight and hear Morrison's notorious broadcast shortly after the disaster immediately heightened its importance, and the Hindenburg's name is still instantly recognizable over 75 years later. This book chronicles the events that led up to one of history's most famous air disasters. Along with pictures of important people, places, and events, you will learn about the Hindenburg like never before in no time at all. Publisher: I Survived the Hindenburg Disaster, 1937, The Hindenburg Marc Tyler Nobleman, 2005-09. Discusses the history of the Hindenburg and its demise. Bonnie and the Fiery Crash JULIE KATHLEEN GILBERT, 2024-08. The year is 1937, and the Hindenburg airship is about to land. Twelve-year-old Bonnie has enjoyed her journey across the Atlantic Ocean on the airship. She's marveled by the sight of New York City when she hears a big THUD. In the moments that follow, she and the other passengers realize the ship has burst into flames. As the ship falls to the ground, passengers must act quickly. Will Bonnie and her family escape the burning airship?
