The Human Primate:

The Human Primate R. E. Passingham, 1982 The Human Primate, 1981 Spontaneous Pathology of the Laboratory Non-human Primate Alys Bradley, Jennifer Chilton, Beth Mahler, 2023-06-20 Spontaneous Pathology of the Laboratory Non human Primate serves as a go to resource for all pathologists working on primates in safety assessment studies In addition it helps diagnostic veterinary pathologists rule out spontaneous non clinical disease pathologies when assigning cause of death to species in zoological collections Primate species included are rhesus cynomolgus macaques and marmosets Multi authored chapters are arranged by organ system thus providing the necessary information for continued research Pathologists often face a lack of suitable reference materials or historical data to determine if pathologic changes they are observing in monkeys are spontaneous or a consequence of other treatments or factors Contains color illustrations that depict the most common lesions to augment descriptions Covers descriptions that are compliant with the International Harmonization of Nomenclature and Diagnostic Criteria INHAND guidelines set forth by the Society of Toxicologic Pathology STP Provides pathologists with common terms that are compliant with the FDA s Standard for Exchange of Nonclinical Data SEND guidelines Non-human Primate Models of Psychiatric Disorders Rafael S. Maior, Hisao Nishijo, Fabio Viegas Caixeta, 2022-01-06 How Culture Makes Us Human Dwight W Read, 2016-05-23 What separates modern humans from our primate cousins are we a mere blink in the march of evolution or does human culture represent the definitive evolutionary turn Dwight Read explores the dilemma in this engaging thought provoking book taking readers through an evolutionary odyssey from our primate beginnings through the development of culture and social organization He assesses the two major trends in this field one that sees us as a logical culmination of primate evolution arguing that the rudiments of culture exist in primates and even magpies and another that views the human transition as so radical that the primate model provides no foundation for understanding human dynamics Expertly synthesizing a wide body of evidence from the anthropological and life sciences in accessible prose Read s book will interest a broad readership from experts to undergraduate students and the general public Primates in Anthropogenic Landscapes Tracie McKinney, Siân Waters, Michelle A. Rodrigues, 2023-01-01 The field of primatology has expanded substantially in the last twenty years particularly with regard to studies of primates in human altered landscapes This text aims to review the recent literature on anthropogenic of human origin influences on non human primates bringing an overview of this important area of primatology together for students Chapters are grouped into three sections representing the many ways anthropogenic activities affect primate populations The first section Human Influences on Primate Habitat covers ways in which wild primates are affected by human actions including forest fragmentation climate change and the presence of dogs Section two Primates in Human Dominated Landscapes looks at situations where non human primates and humans share space this includes primates in urban environments primate tourism and primates in agroecosystems The final section Primates in Captivity looks at primate behaviour and welfare in captive situations including zoos the primate pet trade and in entertainment Harper's Bazaar, 1871 The Evolving Human Primate Donald Sharpes, 2016-01-01 The theme of this book is our primate biology or who we are as a continuum of our animal ancestors Professor Sharpes first uses comparative animal studies and recent finds in archaeology to outline this argument and theme and thus provides evidence for human animal origins He then reveals how our emotions and behaviors influence our lives as demonstrated through the major social sciences the philosophy of our cognitive functioning our psychology and our religious beliefs as consumers the economy as national citizens political science government and as world citizens climate change The idea is to examine the human condition from more than one discipline and to synthesize research studies that analyze human behavior that is socially similar to other primate behavior What makes this book unique is its interdisciplinary investigation of human primates from the variety of the social sciences He has conducted similar research in two previous books The Evolution of the Social Sciences 2009 and Outcast and Heretics Profiles in Independent Thought and Courage 2007 The target audience is the articulate and literate community in the broad field of the social sciences a book appropriate for a general audience and students in all the social science specialties including interdisciplinary studies such as courses in evolution climate change politics anthropology psychology and the life sciences Evolving Human Primate Donald Sharpes, 2017-07 The theme of this book is our primate biology or who we are as a continuum of our animal ancestors Professor Sharpes first uses comparative animal studies and recent finds in archaeology to outline this argument and theme and thus provides evidence for human animal origins He then reveals how our emotions and behaviors influence our lives as demonstrated through the major social sciences the philosophy of our cognitive functioning our psychology and our religious beliefs as consumers the economy as national citizens political science government and as world citizens climate change The idea is to examine the human condition from more than one discipline and to synthesise research studies that analyse human behavior that is socially similar to other primate behaviour What makes this book unique is its interdisciplinary investigation of human primates from the variety of the social sciences He has conducted similar research in two previous books The Evolution of the Social Sciences 2009 and Outcast and Heretics Profiles in Independent Thought and Courage 2007 The target audience is the articulate and literate community in the broad field of the social sciences a book appropriate for a general audience and students in all the social science specialties including interdisciplinary studies such as courses in evolution climate change politics anthropology psychology and the life sciences The Human primate: The human primate, 1981 Fraser's Magazine, 1872 Primate Report Deutsches Primatenzentrum, 1997 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1873 Commensalism and Conflict James D.
