Thomas J. Sergiovanni, Robert J. Starratt, 1971      Understanding Curriculum William F. Pinar, 1995 Perhaps not since Ralph Tyler's 1949 Basic Principles of Curriculum and Instruction has a book communicated the field as completely as Understanding Curriculum From historical discourses to breaking developments in feminist poststructuralist and racial theory including chapters on political theory phenomenology aesthetics theology international developments and a lengthy

Psychotherapy R. Elliott Ingersoll, David M. Zeitler, 2010-08-01 Introduces integral psychotherapy to scholars practicing psychotherapists and general readers      Supervision Thomas J. Sergiovanni, Robert J. Starratt, 1993 This edition continues to promote a new vision of supervision from that of a top down activity performed by higher ups in the school hierarchy to one in which supervision is a shared activity involving all stake holders in the school including teachers administrators and parents The book sees schools as communities rather than organizations and emphasizes the student teacher relationship rather than bureaucratic functions This edition of the text continues to emphasize the moral implications of supervision and teaching The revision places greater emphasis on the role of community and the link between the learning community students and teachers A new chapter 4 Community as a Force for Change argues that teachers must assume more responsibility in order to bring about reform Chapter 6 now redefines collegiality more deeply as a self obligation to collaborate with others      Supervision: Perspectives & Propositions Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development. Commission on Supervision Theory, 1967      Existential Perspectives on Supervision Emmy van Deurzen, Sarah Young, 2009-07-31 Supervision is an essential part of counselling and psychotherapy practice It is increasingly recognised as a tool for ensuring high professional standards In an era of regulation and tightening control there is a growing professional need to take stock and reflect on what it means to work with human problems It is vital that therapists address the moral and philosophical dimensions of their profession and ask themselves what it is to be human This rich and far reaching book explores supervision from this timely philosophical perspective Designed both for trainees and more seasoned professionals whatever their theoretical orientation it makes a clear case for seeing existential perspectives on supervision as complementary to rather than as a substitute for other forms of supervision In doing so the book Allows for an integration of existential supervision within a consistent cross theoretical framework Helps readers to take better account of the personal ethical political and cultural dimensions of their work Promises to rekindle practitioners passion for their therapeutic work whilst broadening their vision      Handbook for Effective Supervision of Instruction Ross Linn Neagley, Norman Dean Evans, 1980      Journal of Curriculum and Supervision , 1991      Clinical Supervision Cheryl Granade Sullivan, 1980

Ubben, 1994 A comprehensive treatment of the role and functions of the elementary principal for those holding or training for principalships The volume is divided into three parts organizational realities and societal impingements leadership and management tasks and functions and leadership processes Revis      Supervision, a Guide to Practice Jon Wiles, Joseph Bondi, 1980      The Principal Gerald C. Ubben, Larry W. Hughes, 1992 This book provides a bridge from learning the theory of school administration to the practical problem solving in which school principals and other leaders engage This book continues to be based on the research indicating linkages between educational leadership and productive schools especially in terms of outcomes for children It supports the understanding that formal leadership in schools is a complex multi faceted task that requires continual learning and that effective school leaders must be strong educators focused on the central issues of learning teaching and school improvement School leaders must also be moral agents and social advocates for the children and communities they serve while working with community stakeholders to create learning communities that value and care for others as individuals and as members of the educational community For those aspiring to become principals or hold leadership positions      Thrust for Educational Leadership , 1974
