The Sheikh's Batmobile Richard Poplak,2010-08-17 What happens to our pop culture when it meets another culture head on especially one that according to some is completely at odds with our own

In The Sheikh's Batmobile pop culture commentator Richard Poplak sets out on an unusual two year odyssey. His mission is to see what becomes of his and America's obsessions: pop songs and sitcoms, Hollywood movies and shoot 'em up video games, muscle cars and punk music when they make their way into the Muslim world. Over the course of his journey Poplak gets body slammed by WWE fans in Afghanistan, hangs out with hip hop artists in Palestine, headbangs to heavy metal in Cairo, discovers a world of extreme makeovers in Beirut, bowls with the chief of police in small town Kazakhstan and encounters a mysterious Texan who builds rocket propelled Batmobiles for a clientele of sheikhs. With uproarious humor and keen cultural insight Poplak asks some vital questions: How is American pop culture consumed and reinterpreted in the Islamic world? What does that say about how we are viewed by young Muslims? And can Homer Simpson bridge the divisions that are tearing our world apart?

Introduction to Homeland Security Jane Bullock, 2005. Introduction to Homeland Security provides educators, students and practitioners with a comprehensive account of past and current homeland security reorganization and practices, policies and programs in relation to the government restructure. The structure of each chapter will remain consistent throughout the text and will be designed to accommodate useful pedagogical elements such as learning objectives for each chapter, definitions of the terms used in homeland security, a comprehensive contact list of Federal and State government homeland security offices and officials, case studies of past domestic terrorism events such as the World Trade Center, the Pentagon attack, the Oklahoma City bombing, the anthrax crisis and the Washington DC sniper attacks, and an Instructor Guide complete with chapter summaries, exam questions and discussion topics. Color throughout will enhance these elements. In addition the book will provide an historic context for current homeland security activities, Trade Center bombing and the 1995 Oklahoma City bombing, and focus principally on the September 11, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. The book will recount government and private sector actions taken in the aftermath of 9/11 in the areas of legislation, government organization, communications, technology and emergency management practices. Case studies and best practices will be included as well as a comprehensive glossary of homeland security terms and acronyms.

Signal, 1996. The Encyclopedia of Tourism and Recreation in Marine Environments Michael Lück, 2008. Marine tourism has become one of the fastest growing areas within the tourism industry. With the increased use of marine environments comes the need for informed planning and sustainable management as well as for the education and training of planners, managers and operators. Combining the disciplines of marine scientists and tourism researchers, this encyclopedia will bring together the terms, concepts and theories related to recreational and tourism activities in marine settings. Entries range from short definitions to medium and long articles.
