Resources in Education, 1997-07 Group Work in the Helping Professions David G. Zimpfer, 1984 Journal of Human Services Abstracts, 1981 Modern Administrative Practices in Human Services Paul M. DuBois, 1981 Introduction to Human Service Networks Robert P. Scheurell, 1987-08-07 This book asserts that human services in general and social work are highly interdependent and related to society's institutions and other human service professions. To understand social work as a profession, one needs to see where it interacts with other professions in the delivery of social services within the same social network.

Human Service Agencies Lupe Alle-Corliss, Randy Alle-Corliss, 1998 This practical and personal guide will alert you to the real world issues of agency settings, helping you make the most of your agency experience. Lupe and Randy Alle Corliss introduce you to the most salient issues in the field as they facilitate the process of professional skill building to help you become an effective helper from back cover.

Interviewing in Health and Human Services Krishna Samantrai, 1996 This text presents an innovative approach to learning and teaching the art of interviewing in the increasingly diverse and complex field of human services. Using a clear, straightforward language, Samantrai explains abstract concepts, principles, and techniques of professional practice. Then, by presenting complete recordings of actual case interviews, she illustrates how these theories translate into everyday application. Line by line analysis alongside the interviews allows the student to examine the client's exact words, nonverbal behaviors, and psychological processes and assess the worker's skills and techniques. Samantrai has carefully addressed multiculturalism. Not only does she discuss interviewing ethnic minorities, but she covers the necessary skills for interviewing people of all cultures as well as women and children. Included at the end of this text are quick reference guides covering how to organize interviewing principles and techniques, assess client needs, and develop service plans.
