The Evolution of Arthurian Romance Beate Schmolke-Hasselmann, 1998-05-28 This 1998 study serves as a contribution to both reception history examining the medieval response to Chr tien s poetry and genre history suveying the evolution of Arthurian verse romance in French It describes the evolutionary changes taking place between Chr tien s Eric et Enide and Froissart s Meliador the first and last examples of the genre and is unique in placing Chr tien s work not as the unequalled masterpieces of the whole of Arthurian literature but as the starting point for the history of the genre which can subsequently be traced over a period of two centuries in the French speaking world Beate Schmolke Hasselmann s study was first published in German in 1985 but her radical argument that we need urgently to redraw the lines on the literary and linguistic map of medieval Britain and France is only now being made available in English The Routledge Research
