Dog World Alfred Gingold, 2005 In the fall of 2001 Alfred Gingold found himself succumbing to the undeniably endearing behavior of his family's new Norwich terrier George and becoming a member of what he calls Dog Nation the 43 million dog owners and their 55 million dogs living in America today In a matter of weeks Gingold had become a firsthand ethnographer of the passions read idiosyncrasies that define dog owners everywhere It was literally a case of puppy love The result of Gingold's shrewd observation is Dog World which is structured around the loose chronology of dog ownership choosing and finding a dog feeding walking and cleaning up after the dog the literal and emotional obstacle course that is training a dog and on to the larger cultural realms of dog racing and of course dog kitsch and memorabilia But the real delight of Dog World is in Alfred Gingold's narrative excursions through the canine universe whereby he reports and occasionally pontificates on topics such as the untold history of dog walking how dog food came to be the urban art of scooping poop and an analysis of the relationships great historical figures have had with their dogs Like Bill Bryson or Calvin Trillin Alfred Gingold brings a particularly wry and comic perspective to the world And whether one is a dog lover or a dog agnostic Dog World will be a tremendously entertaining journey into mankind's canine love affair Cathletics Jo
