Exploring Colossians:Living the New

Reality Roy R. Jeal,2024-11-22 In this comprehensive sociorhetorical interpretation of Colossians Roy R Jeal explores the letter's portrayal of the grand vision that extends from the realm of God before the creation of the cosmos to the new reality and new culture of the life of fullness in Christ The commentary analyzes the pictures the text evokes in the human visual imagination identifies the persuasive modes of discourse in the letter and evaluates the range of textures that interweave to produce the dynamic rhetorical argument of Colossians Demands to conform to empty deceitful philosophy human tradition and the elements of the world rather than to Christ are irrelevant for believers who have been transferred from darkness to the light of the Son of God's kingdom The rhetoric of the letter moves believers to ideologies of living in the body of Christ where orderly behavior guided by love contrasts with the chaotic self indulgent divisive uncertainties of Mediterranean

Africa language English abstract Corruption has been considered endemic to Nigeria How do Nigerian literary artists depict this social illness in their literary works This article examines the treatment of corruption in Iyayi's The Contract The discourse focuses on the social levels at which corruption is manifested and the effects of corruption on individuals and the society as depicted in the novel The results will indicate that the novel exposes some identified social ills which become endemic when political and institutional leaders put aside their responsibilities of nation building and succumb to the lure of lucre Specifically the leaders depicted in this novel use the awards of contracts ostensibly for nation building as blinds for corrupt self enrichment and embezzlements of public funds Nature's Altars Susan R.
