The Coscuin Chronicles
Book One

Illustrated by David Brian Erickson

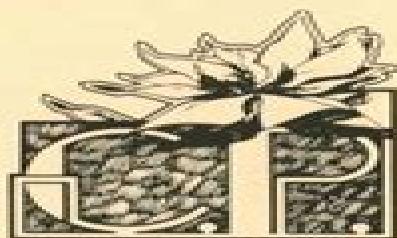

Let us say that we have a green thing growing forever. Everything that is done is done by it. And on it we also have the red parasite crunching forever; and everything that is undone is undone by that.

It is required of each man that he ride over himself in justice, and that he ride over the world in justice.

This has gone on forever, though it is hard to trace through garbled history. And it must still go on forever. For all your own life and for the life of all your children, you will carry on the green battle.

There really was a devilish bit of art in the incomplete melody of Dana blended in with the overpowering blast of Ifreann Chortovich. This song had been going on for a long time when it started.

It was song to raise the roof by, it was song to drive stout men into the ground like stakes by, it was music to geld behemoths by, to sink ships by, or to hang burghers by.
