The Country Mothers Cookbook:

The Country Mothers Cookbook Jane Watson Hopping, 1991 Jane Watson Hopping celebrates Mother's Day and the time honored art of home cooking in an enchanting volume chock full of mouth watering recipes oral histories art and poetry

The Country Mothers Cookbook Jane W. Hopping, 1991-04-01 Food Between the Country and the City Nuno

Domingos, José Manuel Sobral, Harry G. West, 2014-03-27 At a time when the relationship between the country and the city is in flux worldwide the value and meanings of food associated with both places continue to be debated Building upon the foundation of Raymond Williams classic work The Country and the City this volume examines how conceptions of the country and the city invoked in relation to food not only reflect their changing relationship but have also been used to alter the very dynamics through which countryside and cities and the food grown and eaten within them are produced and sustained Leading scholars in the study of food offer ethnographic studies of peasant homesteads family farms community gardens state food industries transnational supermarkets planning offices tourist boards and government ministries in locales across the globe This fascinating collection provides vital new insight into the contested dynamics of food and will be key reading for upper level students and scholars of food studies anthropology history and geography

Case Studies in Food Policy for Developing Countries Per Pinstrup-Andersen, Fuzhi Cheng, 2018-07-05 The food problems now facing the world scarcity and starvation contamination and illness overabundance and obesity are both diverse and complex What are their causes How severe are they Why do they persist What are the solutions In three volumes that serve as valuable teaching tools and have been designed to complement the textbook Food Policy for Developing Countries by Per Pinstrup Andersen and Derrill D Watson II they call upon the wisdom of disciplines including economics nutrition sociology anthropology environmental science medicine and geography to create a holistic picture of the state of the world's food systems today Volume I of the Case Studies addresses policies related to health nutrition food consumption and poverty

The State of the World's Biodiversity for Food and Agriculture Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-03-12 The State of the World's Biodiversity for Food and Agriculture presents the first global assessment of biodiversity for food and agriculture worldwide Biodiversity for food and agriculture is the diversity of plants animals and micro organisms at genetic species and ecosystem levels present in and around crop livestock forest and aquatic production systems It is essential to the structure functions and processes of these systems to livelihoods and food security and to the supply of a wide range of ecosystem services It has been managed or influenced by farmers livestock keepers forest dwellers fish farmers and fisherfolk for hundreds of generations Prepared through a participatory country driven process the report draws on information from 91 country reports to provide a description of the roles and importance of biodiversity for food and agriculture the drivers of change affecting it and its current status and trends It describes the state of efforts to promote the sustainable use and conservation of biodiversity for food and agriculture including through the development of supporting policies legal frameworks institutions and capacities It concludes with a discussion of needs and challenges in the future management of biodiversity for food and agriculture The report complements other global assessments prepared under the auspices of the Commission on Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture which have focused on the state of genetic resources within particular sectors of food and agriculture Families and Food in Hard Times Rebecca O'Connell ,Julia Brannen,2021-05-24

Food is fundamental to health and social participation yet food poverty has increased in the global North Adopting a realist ontology and taking a comparative case approach Families and Food in Hard Times addresses the global problem of economic retrenchment and how those most affected are those with the least resources Based on research carried out with low income families with children aged 11-15 this timely book examines food poverty in the UK Portugal and Norway in the decade following the 2008 financial crisis It examines the resources to which families have access in relation to public policies local institutions and kinship and friendship networks and how they intersect Through thick description of families everyday lives it explores the ways in which low income impacts upon practices of household food provisioning the types of formal and informal support on which families draw to get by the provision and role of school meals in children's lives and the constraints upon families social participation involving food Providing extensive and intensive knowledge concerning the conditions and experiences of low income parents as they endeavour to feed their families as well as children's perspectives of food and eating in the context of low income the book also draws on the European social science literature on food and families to shed light on the causes and consequences of food poverty in austerity Europe
