The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood Sharon Hays,1996-01-01 Examines the common belief that mothers should invest an enormous amount of time and energy in raising children which places an additional burden on working women and reinforces the assumption that men are ineffective parents      Intensive Mothering: The Cultural

Contradictions of Modern Motherhood Linda Rose Ennis,2014-12-01 To celebrate the twentieth anniversary of Sharon Hays landmark book The Cultural Contradictions of Motherhood this collection will revisit Hays concept of intensive mothering as a continuing yet controversial representation of modern motherhood In Hays original work she spoke of intensive mothering as primarily being conducted by mothers centered on children s needs with methods informed by experts which are labourintensive and costly simply because children are entitled to this maternal investment While respecting the important need for connection between mother and baby that is prevalent in the teachings of Attachment Theory this collection raises into question whether an over investment of mothers in their children s lives is as effective a mode of parenting as being conveyed by representations of modern motherhood In a world where independence is encouraged why are we still engaging in intensive motherhood      Mothers and Children Susan E. Chase,Mary Frances Rogers,2001

Motherhood is a highly personal array of experiences with a uniquely public dimension preoccupying policymakers advice givers health care providers religious leaders child care workers educators and total strangers who feel entitled to judge mothers they see with their children in the neighborhood or on the TV news Chase U of Tulsa and Rogers U of West Florida approach motherhood and mothering as feminist sociologists focusing on questions such as how ideas about motherhood are shaped by social and historical conditions how ideas about motherhood change over time and across social contexts who has the power to make their definitions of motherhood stick and what diverse groups of mothers themselves think Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      The Cultural Contradictions of Contemporary Motherhood Sharon Hays,1993
