The Cromwellian Gazetteer An Illustrated Guide To Britain In The Civil War And Commonwealth:

The Cromwellian Gazetteer Peter Gaunt, 2000 An exploration of the local crafts of the Cotswolds

The Memory of Catastrophe Peter Gray, Kendrick Oliver, 2004-09-04 Memories of catastrophes both those which occur naturally and those which are consequences of human actions loom large in the modern consciousness The volume opens with an investigation of the concepts of catastrophe and collective memory and the relationships between them Arguing that a pervasive catastrophic memory may be as disabling as it is instructive Gray and Oliver stress the necessity of rendering the phenomenon subject to secular critical inquiry The value of such an approach is then demonstrated in a series of case studies

Anatomy of a Siege Kenneth Wiggins, 2001 A rare well preserved example of the specialised military mining techniques employed in siege warfare

Campaigns of the Eastern Association Laurence Spring, 2022-08-25 The Eastern Association is best known for its performance at the battle of Marston Moor and the rise of Oliver Cromwell but it was so much more It was one of the most successful Parliamentary armies that served during the First Civil War firstly having to secure the counties of East Anglia from Royalist sympathizers and then supporting Lord Fairfax s Northern Association in its struggle with Newcastle s Army and the latter s final defeat at the battle of Marston Moor It then assisted the remains of the Earl of Essex s Army and Sir William Waller s at the second battle of Newbury Using contemporary and archaeological evidence this book looks at these two battles as well as Gainsborough and Winceby and the sieges of Reading King s Lynn Lincoln and York It also looks at the religious and political divisions within the army caused by the Presbyterians and Cromwell s Independent factions which would almost cripple the army in winter of 1644 which would end in a bitter dispute in Parliament which would eventually lead to the formation of the New Model Army This book not only looks at the commanders but also the soldiers who served in the army by using their petitions which gives a vivid insight into the campaigns and life as a soldier during the Civil War and is divided into the following chapters

- 1 First Campaigns the campaigns of Lord Grey of Warke the first commander of the Eastern Association and also the early campaigns of Cromwell
- 2 Manchester Takes Command the increase in the strength of the Association under its new commander the Earl of Manchester and the events leading up to it marching north including Prince Rupert surprising the besiegers at Newark
- 3 Newark the Parliamentarian siege of Newark and Rupert s relief of the town
- 4 The Siege of York the events of the siege and siege warfare
- 5 Marston Moor the battle of Marston Moor and the surrender of York
- 6 Crawford s Campaign the campaign of Major General Lawrence Crawford after the surrender of York including the capture of Sheffield
- 7 Manchester s Campaign describes Manchester s movements from the surrender of York until his uniting with the armies of Essex and Waller at Basingstoke
- 8 The Newbury Campaign re examines the battle and also considers the King s return to Newbury and the combined Parliamentarian armies refusing to fight
- 9 The Winter of Discontent the dispute in Parliament which resulted in the Self Denying Ordinance and the formation of the New Model Army
- 10 The Last Campaigns Cromwell being sent into the West and Crawford being ordered to assist Sir William Brereton and then the disbandment of the Association's regiments to form the New Model Army The conclusion traces what happened to some of the combatants after the war and appendices describe the logistics of the Eastern Association and the Royalist Colors that were captured at Marston Moor The discovery of the whereabouts of the correspondence of the Earl of Manchester after they were withdrawn from the then Public Record Office means that this book contains information not used in other books on the campaigns of the Eastern Association and also the raising of the New Model Army so is a must for anyone interested in the Civil War

Republic Alice Hunt, 2024-09-24 An enthralling narrative of the rise and fall of Britain's republican experiment DOMINIC SANDBROOK The Times Best History Books of 2024 A gripping tale of political and cultural crisis but also one of joy and hopeful innovation told with eloquence and passion MALCOLM GASKILL Magisterial compelling and eye opening SUZANNAH LIPSCOMB Events moved with giddy speed in the 1650s After the execution of Charles I dangerous monarchy was abolished and the House of Lords was dismissed sending shock waves across the kingdom These revolutionary acts set in motion a decade of bewildering change and instability under the leadership of the soldier statesman Oliver Cromwell England's unique and distinctive republican experiment may have been short lived but it changed the course of British history It transformed the relationship between England Scotland and Ireland reset the compact between the monarch and the people and re-fashioned the story the British told and continue to tell about themselves REPUBLIC is a richly engrossing year by year account of this exhilarating and daring period It tells the story of what Britain's republic was really like why it failed but also what it got right

The Massacre in History Mark Levene, Penny Roberts, 1999 The role of massacre in history has been given little focused attention either by historians or academics in related fields This is surprising as its prevalence and persistence surely demands that it should be a subject of serious and systematic exploration What exactly is a massacre When and why does it happen Is there a cultural as well as political framework within which it occurs How do human societies respond to it What are its social and economic repercussions Are massacres catalysts for change or are they part of the continuity of the human saga These are just some of the questions the authors address in this important volume Chronologically and geographically broad in scope The Massacre in History provides in depth analysis of particular massacres and themes associated with them from the 11th century to the present Specific attention is paid to 15th century Christian Jewish relations in Spain the St Bartholomew's Day massacre England and Ireland in the civil war era the 19th century Caucasus the rape of Nanking in 1937 and the Second World War origins of the Serb Croat conflict The book explores the subject of massacre from a variety of perspectives its relationship to politics culture religion and society its connection to ethnic cleansing and genocide and its role in gender terms and in relation to the extermination of animals The historians provide evidence to suggest that the massacre is often central to the course of human development and societal change

Turncoat Dennis Sewell, 2025-09-04 George Downing came of age as a Puritan pioneer in colonial Massachusetts before crossing the Atlantic to sign up for the English Civil War He fast became Oliver Cromwell's chief of military intelligence and was later a diplomat and an MP. However, Downing spectacularly switched sides, shamelessly betraying his friends. He prospered under Charles II, yet he remains one of the most elusive figures of his age. In Turncoat, he emerges as the extraordinary if troubling anti-hero of his own life story. Judged by contemporaries to be a fearful gentleman and a perfidious rogue, Downing was a double dealer who bribed and blackmailed his way to diplomatic success across Europe, and when it was expedient, betrayed friends to horrifically violent deaths. He pioneered the practice of judicial kidnapping, known today as extraordinary rendition, was a booster of the Atlantic slave trade, and had a hand in starting two major wars. Always at the centre of events, Downing engaged with the most illustrious men and women of his times. His patrons were Oliver Cromwell and King Charles II. Samuel Pepys was his clerk, John Milton prepared his letters and dispatches, William of Orange was godfather to his son, his next-door neighbour was Queen Elizabeth of Bohemia, and when Downing finally built his street, his surveyor was Sir Christopher Wren. Turncoat follows George Downing from the asceticism of Puritan New England across English battlefields, through courts, chancelleries, and parliaments to the fleshpots of Restoration London, where he would spend his final years in unrestrained indulgence as one of the richest men in the kingdom. The Devil from Over the Sea, Sarah Covington, 2022. Since his brutal conquest of Ireland, Oliver Cromwell has attained the status of Ireland's national ogre. This book uncovers the ways in which he was memorialised and sometimes conveniently forgotten from 1660 to 1900, exploring his diverse personae in history, writing religious works, literature, political polemic, folklore, and the landscape.
