The Cross And The Spirit A Study In The Argument And Theology Of Galatians:

The Cross and the Spirit Charles H. Cosgrove, 1988 Revision of the author's thesis doctoral Princeton University 1985

The Letters of Paul Charles B. Puskas, 1993 A Michael Glazier book Includes bibliographical references p 194 216

The Cross and the Spirit Charles H. Cosgrove, 1988 An African Introduction to the New Testament Abeneazer G. Urga, Elizabeth W. Mburu, Ferdinand I. Okorie, 2026-02-10 An African Introduction to the New Testament written by a wide array of scholars from across Africa is the first of its kind to engage every book in the New Testament from the African context Each of the chapters offers a thematic engagement of the book in light of sociocultural and religious heritage This introductory book provides readers with a glimpse of how African Christians read the New Testament text in their contexts by fleshing out themes that connect with African cultures This volume is a valuable resource for anyone interested in African voices in biblical interpretation as it provides an introductory platform for delving deeper into every book of the New Testament The Meaning of "works of the Law" in Galatians and Romans Robert Keith Rapa, 2001 Paul's orientation toward the Law of Moses and the Judaism of his day and the resulting impact upon his theological thought have remained perplexing issues in New Testament and specialized Pauline studies This book examines the meaning of Paul's expression works of the law in Galatians and Romans as a means toward resolution of these difficult areas Robert Keith Rapa suggests that rightly apprehending Paul's perspective on work his use of rhetorical and epistolographical communication mechanisms and his concept of the place of the Law in the redemptive program of God leads to a coherent consistent understanding of Paul's polemical argumentation and his approach to the Law of Moses This understanding will in turn lend clarity to our interpretation of these epistles which are key for grasping Paul's theology An Exegetical Bibliography of the New Testament: Romans and Galatians Günter Wagner, 1983 The Risen Crucified Christ in Galatians Robert A. Bryant, 2001

Echoes of the Exodus Narrative in the Context and Background of Galatians 5:18 William N. Wilder, 2001 In Galatians 5:18 Paul declares that if you are led by the Spirit you are not under the law In this study William N Wilder departs from conventional interpretations by arguing that the language of Galatians 5:18 represents Paul's new exodus understanding of the Christian experience According to Wilder Paul consistently uses the phrase under the law to refer to a bondage he understood as particular to the Jews with strong connotations of a specifically Egypt like slavery attached to this phrase in Galatians Wilder also argues that the typological association of the Spirit and the exodus cloud found elsewhere in Paul in a comparison of 1 Corinthians 10:1-4 and 1 Corinthians 12:13 is likewise assumed in the phrase led by the Spirit and may be traced back to the Old Testament prophetic literature and Psalms Hag 2:4-5 Isa 63:11-14 Neh 9:19-20 Ps 143:10 The author gives special attention to the influence of Psalm 143 on Paul's theology contending that it provides an Old Testament source both for the new exodus assumptions in Galatians 5:18 and for the apocalyptic flesh Spirit antithesis that dominates the larger context of that verse Galatians Douglas J. Moo, 2013-11-15 In this addition to the award winning BECNT series highly regarded New Testament scholar Douglas Moo offers a substantive yet accessible commentary on Galatians With extensive research and thoughtful chapter by chapter exegesis Moo leads readers through all aspects of the book of Galatians sociological historical and theological to help them better understand its meaning and relevance As with all BECNT volumes this commentary features the author s detailed interaction with the Greek text and an acclaimed user friendly design It admirably achieves the dual aims of the series academic sophistication with pastoral sensitivity and accessibility making it a useful tool for pastors church leaders students and teachers

The Law in Galatians In-Gyu Hong,1993 An investigation of Paul s theology of the law in Galatians in the light of recent hermeneutical developments Part I analyses the structure of the letter the theological perspective of Paul and the argument and identity of the opponents On the basis of these three preliminary considerations Part II treats Paul s view of the law in Galatians The thrust of the author s argument is that the term nomos refers to the Mosaic law imposed upon Israel at Mount Sinai and that this law functions on three distinctive levels as the obligation of the Sinai covenant as an enslaving power and as an expression of love

The Rhetoric of Curse in Galatians Kjell Arne Morland,1995 The volumes in this series investigate early Christian literature in the context of Mediterranean literature religion society and culture The authors use interdisciplinary methods informed by social rhetorical and literary approaches to move beyond the limits of traditional literary historical investigations The studies presuppose that Christianity began as a Jewish movement in various geographical political economic and social locations in the Greco Roman world This work examines the meaning and rhetorical function of curses in Paul s confrontation with his opponents in the churches of Galatia Morland s detailed exegeses of Galatians 1 6 12 and 2 15 3 14 offer new insights into the interpretation of Hebrew Bible citations in the New Testament

Galatians Dieter Lührmann,1992 The long awaited commentary by Dieter L hrmann is now available to English speaking audiences for the first time It is a profound succinctly written dialogue with the text that carefully follows the main points of Paul s arguments in his most controversial letter The author presents a theological interpretation which takes seriously Paul s claims about the gospel and also provides a distinctive outline based on this close reading of the text Also included are helpful discussions of the competing theologies of Paul and his opponents a chart on Paul s career and a map of the Roman world L hrmann is a highly acclaimed interpreter of the New Testament This volume will be a valuable addition to a well received commentary series

Journal of Biblical Literature ,1991

Spirit and Kingdom in the Writings of Luke and Paul Youngmo Cho,2005 The paper in this volume are organized in three parts scriptural contextual and theological The central question being addressed is how do Christians living in contexts where Islam is a majority or minority religion experience express or think of the Cross This is therefore an exercise in listening As the contexts from where these engagements arise are varied the papers in drawing scriptural contextual and theological reflections offer a cross section of Christian thinking about Jesus and the Cross
